Hate Crimes and Bias-Related Incident Protocol

Definitions for hate crimes and bias-related incidents can be found by visiting: Office of Institutional Diversity, Definitions webpage: https://bit.ly/2sKkQsD

Individuals who would like to file an incident report should go to a designated authority to capture as many details as possible. The more details provided the more in-depth a case can be investigated. However, any individual can submit a report without going to a designated authority and/or a designated authority can submit a report on behalf of an individual. Reports will be kept confidential to the extent possible unless it requires judicial or administrative action.
