BOSTON COLLEGE POST-GRADUATION PLANS SURVEY CLASS OF 2013

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The purpose of the Boston College Post-Graduation Plans Survey is to track recent graduates' future plans via topics such as their primary activity six months post-graduation, top career fields, the timing of offers and starting salary information, graduate school enrollment by program, degree, and institution, and the organizations where recent graduates choose to volunteer, among other areas. The information collected from graduating seniors provides valuable data for faculty, administrators, and employers to better serve students in their career-planning activities.

Survey administration

- Administered March 2013 through October 2013 to all members of the undergraduate Class of 2013
- Online administration
- 1,404 respondents (61% response rate)

Survey highlights

- Approximately 94% of those responding to the Class of 2013 Post-Graduation Plans Survey indicate that they plan to work full-time, attend graduate school full-time, volunteer, or engage in a fellowship or post-graduation internship.
- The median salary reported by members of the Class of 2013 is $55,000 with the middle 50% of students reporting salaries between $44,750 and $60,000.
- Of those respondents who have accepted a full-time job offer, half are employed in one of the following fields: Accounting, Consulting, Teaching, Financial / Treasury Analysis or Portfolio Management.
- Almost one-fifth (17.2%) of survey respondents indicate that they are/will be pursuing a graduate degree full-time; about 5.3% are enrolled in part-time graduate study.
- Among recent graduates pursuing advanced degrees, over one-quarter (26.2%) are pursuing education degrees and almost another fifth (19.1%) are pursuing law degrees.

RESPONSE RATES BY SCHOOL

The online administration of the survey generated responses from about two thirds of the Class of 2013; the Lynch School of Education (LSOE) had the highest response rate (65%) followed by the College of Arts & Sciences (A&S) with a 61% response rate.

School	Number surveyed	Number of respondents	Response rate
College of Arts & Sciences (A&S)	1520	928	61.1%
Carroll School of Management (CSOM)	492	288	58.5%

PRIMARY ACTIVITY SIX MONTHS FOLLOWING GRADUATION

Approximately 94% of those responding to the Class of 2013 Post-Graduation Plans Survey indicate that they plan to work full-time, attend graduate school, volunteer, or engage in a fellowship or post-graduation internship; the distribution of post-graduation status, however, varies substantially among schools. A total of 63.8% of respondents report that they plan to work full-time. CSON graduates are the most likely to be working for pay (88.5%), followed closely by CSOM graduates (86.1%). Almost one-quarter of A&S and nearly half of LSOE graduates are attending graduate school and approximately 6% of A&S and 4% LSOE graduates report that they are volunteering.

ACTIVITIES PURSUED WHILE AT BC

The broad range of activities Class of 2013 members participated in during the course of their undergraduate experience helped to provide direction as to their post-graduate plans. Over half of 2013 graduates completed an internship (68.4%), engaged in community service (64.3%), and/or participated in a study abroad program (52.7%) while enrolled at BC. Noteworthy is that over half (52.7%) participated in two or three of the listed activities.

Activity	Total number reporting	Percent of total # reporting
Internship	961	68.4%
Community service/volunteer work (outside of class)	903	64.3%
Study abroad/Global experience	740	52.7%
Worked with BC faculty on a research project	361	25.7%
Service learning (as part of a course)	265	18.9%
Externship or job shadowing	201	14.3%
Worked on a research project outside of BC	129	9.2%
Other	96	6.8%
None (or, no response)	81	5.8%

Note: Percentages sum > 100% since respondents are able to select more than one activity.

TOP FACTORS THAT INFLUENCED STUDENTS' POST-GRADUATION PLANS

In addition to the activities in which members of the Class of 2013 participated in, other factors influential to students' post-grad plans were also cited. The number one factor reported by over half (61.5%) of students was "a genuine interest in the field", followed closely by their perception that "time in the role will lead to a promising career" (54.1%). Personal relationships were also noted as being influential to their decision-making process.

Note: Percentages sum > 100% since respondents are able to select more than one activity.

TOP TEN CAREER FIELDS

Topping the list of career fields reported by 2013 graduates are Accounting (Public) and Consulting (9.2% and 7.6% of respondents who reported their field of employment, respectively).

GEOGRAPHIC LOCATION OF EMPLOYED GRADUATES

While the majority reported employment in the Northeast, all areas of the United States were represented by survey respondents. An increase in international destinations was noted, with graduates citing employment in France, Germany, China, England, Ethiopia, Finland, and Taiwan. This geographic distribution is somewhat more diverse than in previous years.

CONCLUSION

The percent of Boston College graduates who planned to work full time has been gradually increasing over the past three years, from 55.9% in 2010 to 63.8% in 2013. The percent planning to enroll in graduate school peaked at 28.1% in 2010 and has gradually decreased to 22.5% in 2013. It will be interesting to monitor the results for future classes to assess whether these trends continue.
