Complete this form only if you were notified that your 2022–2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was not signed by you and/or your spouse. Unsigned FAFSA applications are rejected by the federal processor. In order to continue the review of your financial aid application, you and your spouse, if spousal information was provided on the FAFSA, MUST sign below. This signed statement should be returned to www.bc.edu/finaidupload. Detailed instructions, including file limitations, are available under the “Applying for Aid” tab at www.bc.edu/gradaid. Please note that it takes 48–72 hours for your documents to be added to your financial aid file.

By signing this statement you certify that you (1) will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education, (2) are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (3) do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, and (4) will notify your school if you default on a federal student loan. The student and student's spouse (if applicable) MUST sign below.

By signing this statement you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify the accuracy of your completed FAFSA. This information may include your U.S. or state income tax forms. Also, you certify that you understand the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on your FAFSA with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies. If you purposefully give false or misleading information, you may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both.
