Registration

- 7 Orientations over the course of the summer.
 - Mondays advising, students add courses to academic plan
 - Tuesdays, students register *
- In future semesters, for registration there is an academic advising period of several weeks, students get clearance from their advisor to register, students register themselves for spring semester in November.

* Registration changes should not be made without consulting with an academic advisor. Schedules will be locked at the end of the week of orientation. Schedules will be reopened later in the summer and students will be notified when.

Degree Audit

- Tool to help students assess academic progress towards degree.
- Matches courses to specific degree requirements:
 - Core
 - Major(s)
 - Minor(s)
 - Language Proficiency, if applicable
 - Electives
- Students request degree audits online. Academic advisors review the degree audits with their advisees each semester prior to registration.

Assistant Registrars

- The Assistant Registrars answer questions regarding courses, grades, registration, degree audits, transcripts, degree progress, and graduation

Assistant Registrars:

Karen Livingston – MCAS

Jenna Burke – LSOE, CSON, CSOM

Grades & Transcripts

Faculty post grades online each semester. Students may view grades immediately if all course evaluations have been submitted.

Proxy service, granted by the student through a PORTAL transaction, allows students to grant access to courses and grades for parents and faculty. Please talk to your student about this as this is best way to get grade information.

Boston College partners with the National Student Clearinghouse for sending of official transcripts. Students use PORTAL link to request official transcripts. Unofficial transcripts requested through the Office of Student Services.

Billing

The Office of Student Services sends all bills electronically to the student's Boston College e-mail address. No paper bills are mailed to the student's home address. Students will be notified at their Boston College e-mail address whenever an online bill is generated.

If students prefer to use another e-mail account, they will need to forward their Boston College e-mail account using Gmail's forwarding service.

The schedules below indicate when charges will first appear on the student's billing statement. Updated billing statements are e-mailed monthly. Between statements, students can view all recent transactions by selecting "Recent Activity" in "My Bill"—this view has the most up-to-date student account information.

Note: Charges appearing on the student's bill may be dependent on whether he or she has registered for courses.

Dining Q&A

Can you meet specific dietary needs?

- Absolutely!
- Our Administrative Dietitian/Nutritionist, Christina Karalolos, meets with students to create personalized plans
- Plain and Simple line at three major dining locations for dinner
- Allergen signage in dining locations
- Trained managers and staff
- Online resources
- Christina's email: christina.karalolos@bc.edu

Which plan is right for me?

Designed for different dining habits, students can select from three plan levels—Light, Base, and Premium. All students will automatically be enrolled in the Base Plan. While the Base Plan meets many students' needs, students will have the option to opt up to the Premium Plan or opt down to the Light Plan. Learn more about our options on our website.

Will I be able to switch plans?

All students will automatically be enrolled in the Base Plan for the Fall semester. Students can change from the Base Plan up to the Premium Plan or down to the Light Plan before the September 2, 2023 deadline. Students will have until January 20, 2024 to confirm their meal plan selection for the Spring semester.

Will there be special events, culinary demonstrations, and pop-ups?

Yes, we schedule monthly culinary showcases and periodic culinary demos.

Do students work for dining?

Yes, ~800! We are hiring TODAY!
Meal stipend after four hours of work.

Can I send a birthday cake or get well package?

Yes. See BC Gifts on our website for online ordering.

Are there dining specials to help students save?

Yes! We offer $11 Daily Deals for dinner at our main dining locations. Students can also take advantage of discount pricing with our combo meals. Plus add additional protein and extras to their meal for less.
