Chestnut Hill, MA | 02467 US

The Citi M&A Case Competition is an annual competition organized by the Student Business Consortium (SBC) of Boston College, where participants learn financial modeling and valuation skills through two months of student-led weekly class sessions on pitchbook-building skills. Each team presents its investment analysis, valuation, and modeling to a panel of judges. This year, the competition took place at Boston College before Thanksgiving break. Each team presented its proposed acquisition of Guess Inc. by VF Corporation, and were placed in the following order: 1st Place: Charles Loeb, Ryan Wong, Saurabh Khanna, Trey Klinger, Harish Rao Pagalla; 2nd Place: Owen McCormack, John Caputo, Erik Von Hamm, Jason Choi, Flavia Souplet; 3rd Place: Ajay Bhalodia, Franklin Wood, Davis Brothers, Augustus Thomas, Jeremy Perry; Honorable Mention: Peter Aqil (Shahdara), Franchesco Pizzolante, Vera Krayushova, Kasandra Thomas, Jeremy Perry. Students could pursue to learn more about yourself and your career fields. Here are some options.

Visit our Academic Advising Google Site!

LEADERSHIP THIS WEEK

CSOM students, Lincoln Hardy '24, is featured in the Wall Street Journal's "90 Days in" series.

Check out these many wellness resources available to you on-campus.

The Corcoran Center Case Competition is a national undergraduate affordable housing competition. Each year, students from across the United States compete in the Corcoran in a case competition between 15 to 20 teams. The competition is open to undergraduates from all majors.

To sign up for the 5th Annual Corcoran Center Case Competition - $10,000 in Prizes, visit the Career Highlights page for details.

Leadership is a new tool to BC and has multiple options you can explore.

If you need to get your resume noticed, check out our linked Career Highlights page for more information.

Visit our Academic Advising Google Site!

CSOMWEEK@BC.EDU

LinkedIn Learning account

Don't forget to also visit our linked Career Highlights page for opportunities from employers.

If you have news or upcoming events that you would like to submit to the CSOM Newsletter, please send the details to CSOMWEEK@BC.EDU.

For help with networking, this is a great resource to build up some network.