You will need to go to the website for that. We have highlighted in maroon if the business functions they have LDP programs for. We haven't included the deadlines as a sample. Most organizations have separate programs for different functions. With an LDP, you will relocate for those rotations as well. Check out J&J's info on their year programs where you rotate through different functions of the company, typically appealing, i.e., finance, analytics, sales, operations, HR, but feel like you don't know what you want to do yet? Then LDPs (leadership development programs) are for you. Maybe you have some general ideas about which field of industry seems more appealing, but feel like you don't know which function to choose? Want to put your business degree to good use but have no idea which function to choose? Check out this article for 7 questions to ask from The Muse. Talking with professionals can give you the real scoop on challenges and rewards for the different functions. You can find out more about an LDP at bc.edu/ldp.

EVENTS THIS WEEK

Monday, October 4

CSOMWEEK@BC.EDU: Substitute Monday class schedule

Tuesday, October 5

Information Systems Academy Professor Panel
WIN and WiCS host Dell

Wednesday, October 6

Substitute Monday class schedule

Thursday, October 7

Real Estate Club General Meeting: Tues, Oct 5
Shea Center Talk - Nick Casale, Sendoso

Friday, October 8

BC Blockchain is having our first event - a discussion and Q&A with alumni Justin Hsu of the National University of Singapore and alumni Patrick Szarf of the University of California, San Diego. This event will be a great opportunity for anyone who has heard about crypto and wants to learn more about it. The event is open to everyone. RSVP here: https://bccte.zoom.us/j/98358244772. The event will take place via Zoom on Friday, October 8, from 8:30 pm to 9:15 pm. You must be present for the entire event to participate. This event is open to everyone. You can join at any time during the event. The event is open to everyone.

Saturday, October 9

Women in Business General Meeting
Women in Business (WIB) is a student organization focused on connecting students and professionals in the business world. WIB provides opportunities for students to network with professionals, gain valuable experience, and learn about different career paths. WIB's mission is to empower women in the business world to achieve their full potential.

Sunday, October 10

We're looking forward to a great week ahead! Stay tuned for more updates.

ADVISING THIS WEEK

Career Community LinkedIn Group
Visit our Academic Advising Google Site

CAREERS THIS WEEK

For a complete list of opportunities, please visit our career website at bc.edu/careers.

LEADERSHIP THIS WEEK

For a complete list of opportunities, please visit our career website at bc.edu/careers.