Study abroad in Israel this summer!
Prof Chazen is accepting applications to the June 2022 course planned in Haifa, Israel to study one of the most innovative and entrepreneurial countries in the world. The course will primarily be meeting founders of companies and venture capital mentors that back them to create innovative new products and solutions in its industry sectors: sustainability, financial technology, and cyber security; and will visit a range of companies in Israel, all the way from startups in the country's hubs to established companies. Participants will also enjoy beautiful Mediterranean beaches and great food.

Anyone interested should use the link to submit an application or contact Prof Chazen, chazene@bc.edu.

ADVISING THIS WEEK

Take 1-credit P/F Cross-current seminar on Intercultural Competency, Spring 2022
Over the course of the past two years, the world has experienced twin pandemics, COVID-19, and a continuation of systemic racism. Students entering the workforce today, no matter what profession or field of study, need to be equipped with the knowledge, skills, and attitudes to successfully interact with colleagues, customers, and communities who are different from themselves. This seminar will help students develop their knowledge, skills, and tools through experiential exposure to relevant theoretical materials, meaningful interactions, and discussions with diverse groups of people, and reflect on the impact of these exposures on the students' own identities and their relationships with others. Issues pertaining to identity, diversity, and intercultural engagements will be explored as well as current texts, research, and intercultural events which relate to these topics. Interested? Please submit an application to adrienne.nussbaum@bc.edu if you have questions.

Applications

For the Start@Shea 2022 Accelerator
Application for the Start@Shea 2022 Accelerator is now open! Accelerate@Shea is a 9-week spring semester program for BC students who want to grow their startups. Teams will receive professional mentorship, equity-free seed funding of $1500, weekly educational workshops, and access to a workspace in the new Schiller building. At the end of the program, teams will pitch their companies to the BC entrepreneurship community composed of students, alumni, and more. This is a great opportunity for student founders to grow their startups alongside other founders and expand their company’s reach.

Applications are due by Monday, 12/27, 11:59PM. You can apply by scanning the QR code in the flyer or go to bit.ly/AcceleratorApp22.
