Sign up for Career Accelerator this Spring across Boston College and are designed to introduce students in any field of study to Health and the Common Good. Our entry-level courses are open to students from CLICK HERE FOR A PROMO VIDEO

TERM 2 Sections 06-07: March 13-April 21
Choose from one of seven sections:

- Distinguish yourself in your internship and on the job with sharp business communications. The course is asynchronous, 5-weeks, one credit, and pass-fail.

- BCMP2020 Core Competencies - Focus on Core Competencies in Business: Marketing, Finance, Accounting, Business Ethics, and Human Resource Management. This course has a capstone component that will involve a simulation or project.

- BCMP1020 Introduction to Business: An introduction to the world of business, this course will cover the basic concepts of business and their application in real-world scenarios.

- BCOM1021 Essential Business Communication-async/one credit/pass-fail
- BCOM1022 Marketing for Digital Nomads. This 3-credit class will count as a Marketing or
- BCOM1023 Corporate Social Responsibility

- Summer Abroad 2023: Study Digital Marketing in Lisbon! Learn about the course and meet students that went last summer to hear about their experiences and ask questions. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis.
- Summer Abroad 2023 Information Session - Studying an Innovative Economy in Haifa, Israel - November 15th at 5:00 pm in Stokes N 131

- Thanksgiving Holidays
Wednesday, November 23 - Friday, November 25
Please join the Corcoran Center for a luncheon hosted in collaboration with Stantec. To RSVP click here.

- Corcoran Center Luncheon with Stantec Friday, November 18
12:00 pm in Carney 437

- Corcoran Center and School of Social Work Host: "Caritas More than a Roof over your Head”
12:30 pm in McGuinn 521

- Join WIB to hear from a panel of six female CSOM professors, including Aimee Smith, Njoke Thomas, Rachel Spooner, Liz Quinn, Rita Owens, and Dianne Feldman. This will be a small and intimate dinner with an open-door policy.

- The Lab is the program for any student-founder hoping to actualize ideas that you are passionate about. The student will need a dedicated mentor, a clearly articulated goal, and must have a plan for implementation. The Lab is a 6-month program with weekly meetings and an end-of-program showcase.

- Start@Shea The Lab: Everything Marketing
6:00 pm in 245 Beacon St., Room 202

- Write a thank you note to a professor (one you had this semester or one from previous years?) Can’t stop thinking about. Join us for this workshop to go over how you can utilize your gratitude.
1:00 pm in Fulton 315

- WIB Networking Workshop
7:00 pm in 245 Beacon St., Room 205
Come enjoy snacks with SBC!
7:00 - 9:00 pm in the O’Neill 3rd Floor Reading Room

- WIB x TJX Merchandising
6:00 pm via Zoom

- Come prepare with questions about the world of corporate wellness, the fitness industry, and the transition from BC to the business world! RSVP: here

- Boston College Athletics and Student Life is looking for Freshmen to join our Athletics and Student Life staff! Please email CSOMADVISING@BC.EDU

- Hi! We're 5 BC CSOM Students launching our app, Split! Now live in the App Store, download now!

- Venmo is making splitting the bill easy! Now live in the App Store, download now!

- Sub Turri, the official undergrad yearbook of Boston College, is looking for Freshmen to join our Athletics and Student Life staff! Please email CSOMADVISING@BC.EDU

- Hey Freshmen, do you have an eye for design or enjoy documenting experiences? Looking for a fun challenge? Join theSub Turri Photography Team! Sub Turri is coming up on their 100th year! Don’t miss the opportunity to be a part of history. Contact: csomadvising@bc.edu. Please submit your work to: www.subturri.com. This is a paid position, and the designer will be paid for their work.

- What makes the Boston College student body so unique? Join us as we share the Corcoran Center Talent Exchange Scholarship recipients and the 2022 Corcoran Center Visiting Professional to discuss the challenges of finding professional opportunities and internships.

- At Action for Boston Community Development. Everyone who donates will also have a chance to win a gift card! Stop by our table on November 14th to donate! Donate new toys to local communities in Boston and make their holidays! Stop by our table on November 14th to donate!

- This week in WIBcast, Allison Minogue will remind you to never settle. Allison is a recent graduate of the Class of 2022 and now works at Google as a software engineer. She is passionate about mentorship and giving back to the community.

- This week’s episode highlights concepts of behavioral economics and the importance of making informed decisions. Allison gives a deep dive into what it means to be economically rational and how our decisions are influenced by our environment.

- This week in WIBcast, Allison Minogue will remind you to never settle. Allison is a recent graduate of the Class of 2022 and now works at Google as a software engineer. She is passionate about mentorship and giving back to the community.

- WIBcast

- At Action for Boston Community Development. Everyone who donates will also have a chance to win a gift card! Stop by our table on November 14th to donate! Donate new toys to local communities in Boston and make their holidays! Stop by our table on November 14th to donate!

- This week’s episode highlights concepts of behavioral economics and the importance of making informed decisions. Allison gives a deep dive into what it means to be economically rational and how our decisions are influenced by our environment.

- This week in WIBcast, Allison Minogue will remind you to never settle. Allison is a recent graduate of the Class of 2022 and now works at Google as a software engineer. She is passionate about mentorship and giving back to the community.