Interested in a Portico-style course in Copenhagen this summer?

Join Prof Evans for a 4-week seminar in one of the most beautiful and lively cities in the world to examine the relationship between human flourishing and the institutions of commercial life. Denmark is often rated as one of the happiest nations in the world, so it provides an ideal backdrop to explore how its unique economic and social institutions contribute to individual and collective well-being. (This course also satisfies a Philosophy elective for majors/minors). To apply, see this link and feel free to reach out to Prof Evans with any questions! (evansjv@bc.edu).

Last day to withdraw from a class or the university: Monday, November 27
Fill out this form to withdraw from a class. Don't forget - staff advisors are available to meet to discuss this during drop-in hours - Monday-Thursday 10am-12pm and 1-3pm in Fulton 315

If you want to study abroad, sign up for the Study Abroad 101 now! (Time is running out for this mandatory meeting!)
Students who are interested in studying abroad during the academic year start the application process in the fall of their sophomore year. The deadline to apply is January of your sophomore year.
Here the steps you should take to begin the abroad application process:
1. Complete the Advising Questionnaire at bc.edu/international
2. Sign up for a Study Abroad 101 session here! (These are mandatory!)
3. Start researching programs on the Office of Global Education website and meet with an OGE advisor.
4. Meet with a Carroll School staff advisor to discuss how abroad fits into your 4 year plan and learn what classes you can take abroad.
For more information on the abroad process, visit the OGE website.

Get registration and advising tips from the Peer Advisors! They have first-hand experience that they can share with you about classes!
Visit them in Fulton 315 during their drop-in hours or make an appointment with them on Navigate.

Have lunch with a professor (on us!)
Grab a few of your classmates and take your professor to lunch (on us!) The Carroll School of Management will give you a dining card to use at any of the on-campus dining hall locations to have coffee or lunch with one of your professors. Space is limited so reserve yours today!
Here is how you do it:
1. Only one person can reserve the card each day. Before you invite your professor to lunch, first check out the availability of the card on this Google spreadsheet. Make a note of a few dates that are available.
2. Invite your professor to lunch and give them some available dates.
3. Reserve the dining card on the Google spreadsheet at least 48 hours in advance and email Kevin Lux Ven (luxven@bc.edu).
4. Stop by Fulton 315 and see Kevin to pick up the card after 10:00 am on the morning of your lunch.
6. After lunch, return the card to Fulton 315 along with a receipt from the dining hall by 4:00 pm on the same day.
7. Take a picture with you and the professor and send it to Kevin.
Open to all freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors in the Carroll School of Management. Each “Lunch with a Professor” can have a maximum of four students in attendance.
