Elevate Your Resume with Club Experiences

As you build your resumes, remember to highlight your BC club experiences! Even if you haven't held leadership roles yet, showcasing your involvement in campus clubs demonstrates your proactive engagement in university life, which employers value. Furthermore, these experiences provide excellent opportunities to emphasize crucial skills like teamwork, event planning, and communication—all of which are highly sought after in the professional world. Meet with a Peer Advisor if you need help working on your resume.

LEADERSHIP THIS WEEK

Have lunch with a professor (on us!)

Grab a few of your classmates and take your professor to lunch (on us!) The Carroll School of Management will give you a dining card to use at any of the on-campus dining hall locations to have coffee or lunch with one of your CSOM professors. Space is limited so reserve yours today!

Here is how you do it:

1. Only one person can reserve the card each day. Before you invite your professor to lunch, first check out the availability of the card on this Google spreadsheet. Make a note of a few dates that are available.
2. Invite your professor to lunch and give them some available dates.
3. Reserve the dining card on the Google spreadsheet at least 48 hours in advance and email Kevin Lux Ven (luxven@bc.edu).
4. Stop by Fulton 315 and see Kevin to pick up the card after 10:00 am on the morning of your lunch.
6. After lunch, return the card to Fulton 315 along with a receipt from the dining hall by 4:00 pm on the same day.
7. Take a picture with you and the professor and send it to Kevin.

Open to all freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors in the Carroll School of Management. Each "Lunch with a Professor" can have a maximum of four students in attendance.
