The Citi M&A Case Competition is an annual competition organized by the Student Business Consortium (SBC) of Boston College, where participate less than 20 teams compete. During the competition, students work in teams of 3-5 students on a case competition that challenges teams to create an affordable housing project. Based on actual development, the comprehensive case challenge incorporates a financial model and a narrative proposal that encourages teams to create economic and social value in their proposed development. The final round is held in person following the past two years of virtual competitions. These three teams were each selected as finalists out of 22 competing teams from the first round of this competition. The final round took place on December 12, 2022, and was attended by more than 150 students from across the Boston College community. The competition is open to undergraduates from all majors.
