Full Stack Web Development Course
9:00 pm in Fulton 425
We are offering a web development course that will allow students with some background in CS (basic skills) to understand and build full web applications. Whether that is CS majors looking to be able to quickly deploy API’s and understand the various web tools, or entrepreneurs with some programming skills looking to build their own application. We will be building web applications, not websites. Applications have users, logins, databases, custom interactivity, all in addition to a nice looking website. Students with previous web app experience will also find the material challenging and work on additional topics. This course is not for school credit.

The course will be meeting on Wednesday nights starting February 6th. Meeting time is 9-10:30pm in Fulton 425. Please reserve your spot here: http://bit.ly/BCWebApps

this week LEADERSHIP

Apply to Be a Health Coach!

Empower your peers, become a leader on campus, and gain career skills! Come learn more at one of the information sessions: February 6th at 6pm in Stuart or February 8th at 12 pm in Health Hub. Apply by Sunday, February 10th at bc.edu/healthpro. We also encourage students to sign up for an individual or group coaching session with a Health Coach this semester and become connected to wellness resources on campus.

Join The Gavel!

The Gavel is looking for business team members. There are two different types of positions available called “Coordinators,” one on the marketing team and another on the development team. The development team coordinates with local businesses to hold fundraisers, manages the paper’s money, and is in charge of advertising. Alternatively, the marketing team manages the paper’s image through social media, coordinates with other BC clubs to hold collaborative events such as open mic nights, and raises awareness about our paper. Neither of these positions are responsible for writing articles. Any interested students can contact either Sagenay Dubois at duboissa@bc.edu or Mariah Belisle at belislma@bc.edu.

Take Home Professor is back: 10 left!

Invite a professor to dinner in your residence hall or apartment and you will receive a $100.00 allowance to a grocery store to pay for the ingredients. Contact the professor and come up with a date and time for the dinner.

Once the plans are set, send one email to all the participants and Terry Rezzuti (rezzuti@bc.edu) with the date, time, and location.

The rules are as follows:

1. Students must be sophomores, juniors, or seniors in the Carroll School.
2. There must be at least three Carroll School students attending the dinner with the professor.
3. If you have a kitchen in your apartment on or off-campus, students will cook the professor dinner.
4. If you don’t have a kitchen, you can get take-out for the professor.
5. Professors can only attend one dinner per semester. So act fast if you want to invite a particular professor!
6. There are only 13 Take Home Prof events per semester.
7. A picture must be taken and submitted to Terry at rezzuti@bc.edu for proof.
