Chambers Lecture: Piper Kerman
6:00 pm in Gasson Hall Room 100
Doors open at 5:30PM, seating is based on a first-come, first-serve basis
Join the Winston Center for Leadership and Ethics for a lecture by Piper Kerman, author of the bestselling memoir Orange is the New Black: My Year in a Women's Prison chronicles her “crucible experience”—the 13 months she spent in the Federal Correctional Institution in Danbury, Connecticut after a brief involvement with drug trafficking sent her to prison on money laundering charges. In her compelling, moving, and deeply funny book, Kerman explores the experience of incarceration and the lives of the women she met in prison: their friendships and families, mental illnesses and substance abuse issues, cliques and codes of behavior.
Learn more about Piper Kerman here!

Startup & Entrepreneurship Fair

Interested in a Marketing Career?
Learn about the various positions you can hold in Marketing and make sure you’re going after those jobs and internships the right way at the right time.
Meet with Prof. Jean Mojo to learn more about career paths in Marketing and how to position yourself for specific jobs. She’ll help you explore the range of marketing careers, better understand the marketing recruitment process and guide your search process. Prof. Mojo meets with students on campus every Thursday between 10:30-2 and on phone sessions on Mondays between 3-5:30. Schedule a meeting or phone call at goo.gl/7zyKM.

Next-Gen Internship
The Office of University Advancement at Boston College is once again offering the Next-Gen Summer Internship program. It is designed to provide an opportunity to learn about careers in advancement by providing hands-on experience. Our hope is that some may truly consider taking their passion for BC and embarking on a rewarding career in the fields of development and alumni relations.

The program is for ten weeks, June 3 - August 9, 33 hours per week at $12.00 per hour. It is open to all full-time rising juniors, seniors and recent graduates at Boston College.

Applications and any questions may go to Sue Matys at susan.matys@bc.edu. Applications are due by February 28th. Please see the attached flyer for more information!

SING IT TO THE HEIGHTS!
Come one, come all, and watch as ten talented BC singers compete in this year’s 15th Annual Sing it to the Heights! YOU will choose the winner of the show at the end of the night when we turn to the audience to cast their votes. Tickets are $12 and will go on sale Monday, February 18th at 8:00am. Tickets can be purchased in person at the Robsham Box Office or online. All proceeds from this event go to the Saint Columbkille Partnership School to fund their music program. With donations from this event St. Columbkille has been able to: upgrade their facilities, offer larger classes, and secure new instruments for their students. Tickets go fast so make sure to get yours soon!

This event will take place on Thursday, February 28th @ 7pm in Robsham Theatre.

Join The Gavel!
The Gavel is looking for business team members. There are two different types of positions available called "Coordinators," one on the marketing team and another on the development team. The development team coordinates with local businesses to hold fundraisers, manages the paper's money, and is in charge of advertising. Alternatively, the marketing team manages the paper's image through social media, coordinates with other BC clubs to hold collaborative events such as open mic nights, and raises awareness about our paper. Neither of these positions are responsible for writing articles. Any interested students can contact either Sagenay Dubois at duboissa@bc.edu or Mariah Belisle at belislima@bc.edu.

Summer Internship Abroad: diiVe
diiVe is looking for students studying business who want to build their professional experience, by working abroad for an exciting start-up this summer in Cape Town, South Africa. diiVe teaches students block chain and data science skills, which are necessary for the ever-evolving world of business. Check out diiVe www.godiive.com for more information about this opportunity to gain new skills, work in a start-up setting, and focus on social impact! The director of diiVe, Elspeth Boynton, is coming to campus February 15-22 and would love the opportunity to speak to students in CSOM about the opportunity. If you have any questions, please contact Kelsey Lally at lallyke@bc.edu.

Calling all undergrad entrepreneurs on your campus!
Now through March 31st with $10,000 up for grabs, GMAC will accept proposals from students that solve a social issue and motivate their classmates to join the effort. We want US college students to use their problem-solving skills and access to MBA students, professors, and faculty advisors to connect the dots between social entrepreneurship and a graduate business education.

What do students need to do?
- Submit an idea in the form of a Product, Service, or Program that has the potential to impact and improve the lives of others
- Provide supporting rationale outlining the strategy and why this approach will be successful
- Create a visual demonstration of the concept, such as a website, sketch, video, social campaign, etc.

Students will compete for a Grand Prize of $10,000 and four First Place prizes of $500 each. For more information on the competition, visit gmat.com/think2019

this week NEWS

Take Home Professor is back: 10 left!
Invite a professor to dinner in your residence hall or apartment and you will receive a $100.00 allowance to a grocery store to pay for the ingredients. Contact the professor and come up with a date and time for the dinner.

Once the plans are set, send one email to all the participants and Terry Rezzuti (rezzuti@bc.edu) with the date, time, and location.

The rules are as follows:

1. Students must be sophomores, juniors, or seniors in the Carroll School.
2. There must be at least three Carroll School students attending the dinner with the professor.
3. If you have a kitchen in your apartment on or off-campus, students will cook the professor dinner.
4. If you don’t have a kitchen, you can get take-out for the professor.
5. Professors can only attend one dinner per semester. So act fast if you want to invite a particular professor!
6. There are only 13 Take Home Prof events per semester.
7. A picture must be taken and submitted to Terry at rezzuti@bc.edu for proof.

Win a Patagonia Fleece!

Please let us know what your plans for after graduation will be, whether that's a job, graduate school, military, volunteering or something else! Please log in with your agora credential and update your Recruiting and Analytics Platform (RAP) profile. Please also fill in your junior summer and sophomore summer internship or activity.

We use this data at the aggregate level for accreditation, ranking inquiries, electronic and print materials for prospective students and for current students to research on hiring trends (See Research Tools on left hand side of the platform). This data will never appear or be shared at the individual level--always at the aggregate level--so your information will always be kept confidential.

As an incentive, please update your information by Feb. 28 and you'll be entered in a raffle on March 1 for a personalized CSOM Patagonia fleece!

If you are still seeking employment, please note that so that if we get any job postings, we can send that out to you.
