Take Intro to Law (Business Law) in Spain this summer!
There is still room for this summer! Apply by February 5th! (Application below.)
This course introduces students to the legal system; the social, legal and regulatory environment of business; and the ethical decision-making process. Using a modified case method, students analyze court decisions and other materials that illustrate the role of law in society and the impact of law on the business community. Active student participation is expected in order to assist students in the development of analysis skills, making critical judgments, and the ability to articulate complex ideas effectively. Current events impacting the legal environment of business in the U.S., Spain, and the European Union, as well as elsewhere throughout the world, will be integrated within class discussions as they relate to the textual material. While taking this course fulfills one of the CSOM core requirements, it is also designed for all undergraduates, no matter what their concentration or school. Course code: BSLW1021 (3 credits) - This fulfills the CSOM Business Law requirement Program Dates: May 26 - June 22, 2019 Topics covered include: Sources of law, Court systems, Ethics, Crimes & Torts, Intellectual Property, International Trade, Contracts, Employment Law, Real Property and Spanish Law and Spain’s Legal System For more details, contact Prof. Powers richard.powers@bc.edu, Fulton Hall 545 Course Website: https://bc-oip.terradotta.com/index.cfm?FuseAction=Programs.ViewProgramAngular&id=10090

Seeking a Case Fellow to work with the Fulton Career Team

Did you do well with case interviews for consulting this year? Perhaps you might be interested in being one of 3 case fellows. Raffi Grinberg our case coach will work with you. Fellows would learn the following:
● How to be really good at case interviews, including second-round interviews and other scenario-based interviews (like "client readiness" interviews)
● How to teach other people these skills in a methodical way
● How to coach and mentor students in a way that motivates them and helps them succeed

Fellows will gain these benefits:
● Pay (it'll be a paid position, like being a Peer Adviser or Portico TA)
● Hands-on experience playing the role of an interviewer, which will make you even better at being an interviewee in the future
● Helping your peers get their dream jobs

The schedule roughly looks like:
● Some training this spring, an average of 1 hour/week (maybe less)
● Potentially some time mentoring students this spring (though unlikely, since the spring is typically much less busy)
● High demand in the first 2 months of the fall 2019, something like 3-5 hours/week

The hours would be variable, and you'd get paid for any hours you do end up working. For more information or training.

To apply, please send an email to Amy Donegan (donegana@bc.edu) and Raffi Grinberg (grinberr@bc.edu) about why you are interested and qualified for this Fellowship. Please limit it to 200 words maximum. Note that you don't need to already have landed a consulting internship or job to qualify; only that you demonstrate an aptitude for case interviews and helping others prepare for them.
