New club - Boston College VCPE: Venture Capital & Private Equity

Through speaker events and networking opportunities, Boston College VCPE aims to build relationships between students and business professionals. Our goal is to give students a deeper understanding of venture capital, private equity, and other early-stage funding professions through exposure to individuals and firms that are active in this fast moving space.

If you are interested in joining VCPE, please send an email and a statement of interest to bostoncollegevcpe@gmail.com.

New club - Actuarial Science Club

Are you interested in the intersection of math, business, and risk, and would like to know more about the field of actuarial science? Are you already interested in actuarial science, but not sure where to go on campus for resources? Would you like to participate in the leadership activities required for launching a pre-professional club? Students interested in an actuarial science club on campus are looking for other interested students and potential club leaders for the next semester. If any of this interests you or you have any further questions, please reach out to Jack McErlean at mcerleaj@bc.edu.

Columnist position at The Heights!

As a columnist for The Heights, you would be required to write a weekly column to be published online and printed in the Opinions section of the newspaper on occasion. You would also gain valuable research, work, and writing experience contributing regularly to an award-winning newspaper.

If you’re interested, please complete the application below by Sunday, January 14th.

Feel free to email me at opinions@bcheights.com with any questions.
