As a sophomore you have a team of advisors available to help you!

- Staff Advisor: You are assigned to one of the undergraduate dean’s office staff for advising. The staff advisors are available to discuss any advising concerns you may have. They can assist you with questions about academic policies (e.g. what is the language requirement?), course requirements (e.g. when is the earliest I can take Marketing Principles?), and studying abroad (e.g. what courses can I take abroad?)

- Students are assigned by their last name: Students with the last name beginning with A through G should contact Sara Nunziata at sara.nunziata@bc.edu. Students with the last name beginning with H through O should contact Josephine Xiong at josephine.xiong@bc.edu. Students with the last name beginning with P through Z should contact Erica Graf at erica.graf@bc.edu.

- You have an assigned faculty advisor! You can see who it is on the Portal; feel free to reach out to them to introduce yourself.

- We have 16 seniors who are the EY Peer Advisors. Peer advisors can offer excellent guidance to you in where to study abroad, which concentration to pick, and they also can help with resumes.

How do I override into a closed course?
Override permission into a closed course is obtained only through the Department Chairperson of said course.

Can I pass / fail a course and how do I do it?
Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors are allowed to take a course pass/fail provided the course is an elective in A&S, LSOE, CSON. Pass/fail is declared during drop/add and may require permission of the instructor.
