2018 Shea Center Internship Program

The Edmund H. Shea Jr. Center for Entrepreneurship has a goal to foster collaborations between students, and the greater entrepreneurial ecosystem of Boston and beyond. Interning at a start-up provides a unique opportunity for a student to do many tasks, make valuable contributions to a small team, and experience company growth and failures. The start-ups need our students as interns as much as the students need the valuable experience of working for a company in its early stages. At the Shea Center we recognize that many start-up companies are small and just taking off, which means their resources to pay our students is limited. The Shea Center will work closely with the start-up company to ensure our students receive monetary compensation along with gaining great experience.

REQUIREMENTS: Current undergraduate freshmen, sophomores, and juniors are eligible to apply. Student must obtain their internship on their own. Once the student has secured the internship, they will fill out the form here. Internships must be a minimum of 6-weeks or 200 hours. If accepted into the program, the student will receive a stipend of $1000.00 and is required to check in once during the internship with a Shea faculty member and write 3 blog posts throughout the internship discussing what they learned. Students must also provide us with an official offer letter. Applications accepted on a rolling basis.

Marketing Internship Opportunity: City Year

City Year's national marketing team provides a hands-on learning opportunity for an undergraduate student interested in a marketing career. You will support a variety of projects that help City Year carry out our education mission by assisting in research, data analysis, operations, administrative tasks and more. This is an unpaid opportunity where you will learn and develop a variety of highly competitive resume building skills including teamwork, communication, and multi-tasking. It is a 15-30 hour/week commitment for 8-10 weeks, and the start dates/hours can be flexible during business hours. Please note that the internship is based in the Boston office and not in a school. For more details, see link.

Eagle Entrepreneurs Podcast
Eagle Entrepreneurs is a podcast similar to NPR’s How I Built This that tells the stories of Boston College alumni and students who have pursued careers in entrepreneurship and technology. The stories are inspiring and offer valuable insights and advice for anyone interested in starting a business or working in technology. Current episodes feature Justin Robinson (co-founder of Drizly), Sophie Miller (AR/VR Business Development at Google), and Tom Coburn (founder of Jebbit). Additional episodes featuring Bill Clerico (founder of WePay) and Tim Telman (founder of Bank of Cape Cod) will be released soon! All episodes can be found on the Eagle Entrepreneurs website or SoundCloud and will soon be available on iTunes and Google Play.

Lunch with a Professor

Grab a few of your classmates and take your professor to lunch (on us!) The Carroll School of Management will give you a dining card to use at any of the on-campus dining hall locations to have coffee or lunch with one of your professors. Space is limited so reserve yours today!

Here is how you do it:

1. Only one person can reserve the card each day. Before you invite your professor to lunch, first check out the availability of the card on this Doodle schedule. Make a note of a few dates that are available.

2. Invite your professor to lunch and give her/him some available dates.

3. Reserve the dining card on the Doodle schedule at least 48 hours in advance.

4. Stop by Fulton 315 to pick up the card after 10:00 am on the morning of your lunch.

5. Enjoy your lunch at any of the on-campus dining locations!

6. After lunch, return the card to Fulton 315 along with a receipt from the dining hall by 3:00 pm on the same day.

7. Take a picture with you and the professor and send it to Erica Graf.

Open to all freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors in the Carroll School of Management. Each “Lunch with a Professor” can have a maximum of five students in attendance.

Sponsored by the Accenture Fund at Boston College
