Please see the attached flyer for more information!

Cornerstone Research Economic Consulting Externship
Are you a sophomore or junior interested in economics, finance, statistics, or marketing? Would you like to apply your research skills, perform rigorous analyses, and collaborate with leading professors and industry experts on complex, high-stakes litigation? Then economic consulting might be the field for you.

Cornerstone Research is a leading economic and financial consulting firm specializing in the analysis of complex economic, financial, accounting, and marketing issues that arise in the context of various kinds of litigation. For example, we may be asked to predict the effect of a merger of two major high-tech firms on prices and innovation, or to determine the effect of unfavorable drug test results on the stock price of a leading pharmaceutical company, or to value a patent on smartphone technology that might have been infringed.

Cornerstone Research is hosting a one-day externship in our Boston office on Friday, February 22nd, 2019. The externship provides students the opportunity to learn more about the industry, our firm, and the Analyst position.
Please note: this will be a full-day event from 9:30 AM to 5 PM on Friday, February 22nd, 2019.

To Apply: Please submit a résumé, a copy of your unofficial transcript, and a cover letter via your Career Center website. We will be accepting applications through Wednesday, February 6th, 2019.

Internship Opportunity: RippleMatch

RippleMatch is a high-growth tech startup that is flipping the traditional script on the internship/job search process in order to help undergraduate students secure more first-round interviews with companies like IBM, TJX, NASA, and more! Using a combination of algorithms and an elite team of recruiters, students are matched with job/internship opportunities that are best suited for their skills, interests, etc.

RippleMatch is expanding and looking to build out its Growth Marketing Team at Boston College for the Spring 2019 semester. The internship is remote and requires that students employ any number of growth marketing strategies in an effort to promote RippleMatch and generate student sign-ups on the platform. RippleMatch rewards great work ethic so there are certainly opportunities for promotion.

If you’re interested, please email RippleMatch Program Manager, Naya Joseph ’19, at josephnh@bc.edu.

Join The Gavel!

The Gavel is looking for business team members. There are two different types of positions available called “Coordinators,” one on the marketing team and another on the development team. The development team coordinates with local businesses to hold fundraisers, manages the paper’s money, and is in charge of advertising. Alternatively, the marketing team manages the paper’s image through social media, coordinates with other BC clubs to hold collaborative events such as open mic nights, and raises awareness about our paper. Neither of these positions are responsible for writing articles. Any interested students can contact either Sagenay Dubois at duboissa@bc.edu or Mariah Belisle at belisima@bc.edu.

Take Home Professor is back: 10 left!

Invite a professor to dinner in your residence hall or apartment and you will receive a $100.00 allowance to a grocery store to pay for the ingredients. Contact the professor and come up with a date and time for the dinner.

Once the plans are set, send one email to all the participants and Terry Rezzuti (rezzuti@bc.edu) with the date, time, and location.

The rules are as follows:

1. Students must be sophomores, juniors, or seniors in the Carroll School.
2. There must be at least three Carroll School students attending the dinner with the professor.
3. If you have a kitchen in your apartment on or off-campus, students will cook the professor dinner.

4. If you don’t have a kitchen, you can get take-out for the professor.

5. Professors can only attend one dinner per semester. So act fast if you want to invite a particular professor!

6. There are only 13 Take Home Prof events per semester.

7. A picture must be taken and submitted to Terry at rezzuti@bc.edu for proof.
