MONDAY, NOVEMBER 26

Last day to withdraw from a course or the university

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 27

Lunch with an Entrepreneur featuring Steve Fox & Noel Ntabanganyimana

12:00 - 1:00 pm in Cushing 2018

Join us for lunch with Steve Fox, CEO of Impact Global Education, and Noel Ntabanganyimana, the Rwandan Country Director at The Women’s Bakery, Inc. Come hear about their career journeys, current roles, and then network with Steve, Noel, and others interested in international social entrepreneurship.

Lunch is provided by the Shea Center for Entrepreneurship. Space is limited, so please register here to reserve a spot!
Steve Fox is the CEO of Impact Global Education, a company that manages the international education brands ThinkImpact and Winterline. At ThinkImpact, Steve helps the team manage a portfolio of nearly 200 social enterprises, at varying growth stages, in sectors ranging from agriculture and health, to tech and education. Steve comes from an international investment background previously as Managing Director at Sunizarro Investments in sub-Saharan Africa. His work at Sunizarro encouraged local stewardship of private enterprise bolstered by niche international expertise. Steve is also an impact investor and philanthropist with interests in protecting the climate and encouraging girls equity in developing countries. He has an MSc in Political Economy from the University of London, School for Oriental and African Studies, and a BA in International Economics from the University of Richmond.

Noel Ntabanganyimana is the Rwanda Country Director for ThinkImpact at The Women’s Bakery, Inc. In his work at ThinkImpact over the years, he has combined his project management and human resource skills with his ardent enthusiasm for education. He also held a Business Development role and later became a Managing Director at Atkus Incorporated, Inc., a company that advocates for financial inclusion for the underserved through insurance and technology-based risk solutions for credit lenders. Noel studied Architectural and Construction Engineering, and has an MBA.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 29

Lunch with an Entrepreneur: Alex Moulle-Beautraux, CMO, Starry Inc.

12:00 - 1:00 pm in Cushing 208

Join us for lunch with Alex Moulle-Beautraux, CMO of Starry Inc and Boston College alum! After hearing about Alex’s journey as an entrepreneur, you’ll have the opportunity to network with Alex and fellow students interested in entrepreneurship.

Lunch is provided by the Shea Center for Entrepreneurship. Space is limited, so please register here to reserve a spot!

Alex Moulle-Beautrauxis a BC alum and the Chief Marketing Officer for Starry, Inc., a Boston- and New York-based technology company focused on re-imagining and revolutionizing how consumers connect to the internet and by developing an eco-system of products designed to make a broadband access simple and affordable.

Prior to joining Starry, Alex served as Chief Commercial Officer (CCO) for Aereo, Inc., the groundbreaking online television platform. As Chief Commercial Officer, Alex oversaw the company’s marketing initiatives, customer care, distribution partnerships and product management, and played a critical role in helping develop Aereo’s overall business and its nationwide expansion efforts.

Before joining Aereo, Alex served as Global Head of Marketing and Public Relations for Rockstar Games, the leading development and publishing label of publicly-traded Take Two Interactive. At Rockstar Games, he led the game launch efforts for the company, including the record breaking 2008 launch of Grand Theft Auto IV, heralded as the biggest entertainment launch in history.

Prior to Rockstar Games, Alex served on the management team of Media Arts Lab/Chiat Day, Apple’s marketing agency out of Los Angeles and London. While there, he led the day-to-day management of the global marketing campaigns for the Apple account across products including the Mac, iPod and iTunes, Apple TV, and the launch of the iPhone. Prior to joining Media Arts Lab, Alex worked in various New York-based advertising agencies on a wide variety of global brands.

New Elective Course: Summit-Kilimanjaro

Summit Program - Kilimanjaro. Leadership in Action (MGMT 2177)

Professor: Juan S. Montes

3 credit course that meets every other Wednesday for 7 class sessions

Please note: application deadline is now November 30th

The purpose of the course is to develop your inner strength and self-confidence through a journey. You will undertake a real journey, one where you depart from a place that you might know, Logan Airport in Boston, and arrive in a place that probably you do not know anything about it, like Tanzania. There, our goal will be to climb Mount Kilimanjaro (9,341 ft., almost 6,000 meters above sea level), the highest mountain in Africa. Our expedition will be an intense team experience, aimed to facilitating leadership and character development, a once-in-a-lifetime learning opportunity. This is a real adventure, like the ones that inspired great explorers. Please see the attached flyer for more information on the course and the application process!

Information Sessions will be held Thursday, November 15th at 5:00 pm and Tuesday, November 27 at 5:00 pm.

Travel to Venice!

Course: Globalization, Culture and Ethics

Trade made Venice the global city of its heyday and trade spawned innovations in bookkeeping and finance that have persisted to this day. MB 265 Globalization, Culture and Ethics (3) brings a Venetian inflection to a course offered to undergraduates in the Carroll School. Please see the attached flyer for more information!

Synchrony: Business Leadership Program

Title: Business Leadership Program: Enterprise Operations Internship

EagleLink Job ID#: 112248
Deadline: Dec. 7th

The BLP-Internship is a 10-12 week paid summer internship that challenges you with meaningful and real work within one of 10 functional tracks (Credit & Capital Management, Data Analytics, Enterprise Operations, Finance, HR, Internal Audit, Marketing, Risk Management, Sales & Relationship Management, and Technology).

When you’re here, you’re part of the team and we’ll expect you to help us raise the bar—and clear it. The BLP-Internship begins with an in-person orientation—providing you with a chance to build a strong foundation in our business before diving into your summer assignment. You’ll also have the opportunity to take part in our BLP Summer Series, an exclusive program for interns filled with executive career conversations, leadership roundtables, a day of community service, and, of course, a few social outings! More information is on EagleLink.
Win $1000 - Participate in the Klein Ethics Case Competition

The Carroll School of Management and the Boston College Center for Corporate Citizenship are excited to announce the 8th annual Walter H. Klein Business Ethics Case Competition.

The deadline to sign up is December 7th and teams will receive the case before winter break.

The competition will have two rounds. The first round is an executive summary that students will work on over winter break and submit on January 16th. From there, judges will select 10 teams that will compete in the second round on Friday, February 8th in Fulton Hall.

Students must be in the class of 2020 or 2021 at Boston College. Students will compete as a team of two where at least one member of the team must be in the Carroll School of Management. The first place team will receive a cash prize and the opportunity to represent Boston College at a national case competition.
