Chambers Lecture: Piper Kerman

6:00 pm in Gasson Hall Room 100

Doors open at 5:30PM, seating is based on a first-come, first-serve basis

Join the Winston Center for Leadership and Ethics for a lecture by Piper Kerman, author of the bestselling memoir Orange is the New Black: My Year in a Women’s Prison chronicles her “crucible experience”—the 13 months she spent in the Federal Correctional Institution in Danbury, Connecticut after a brief involvement with drug trafficking sent her to prison on money laundering charges. In her compelling, moving, and deeply funny book, Kerman explores the experience of incarceration and the lives of the women she met in prison: their friendships and families, mental illnesses and substance abuse issues, cliques and codes of behavior. Learn more about Piper Kerman here!

Startup & Entrepreneurship Fair

4:30 - 7:00 pm in the Heights Room

All students, no matter what major or college, who are seeking internships and/or full-time positions at startup companies are welcome. The Startup Fair is the go-to event for motivated individuals who are looking to earn more than just a salary and become a part of a growing enterprise where they can make a significant contribution. We hope to expose students to the wide array of potential career opportunities that exist in various emerging industries. No dress code, relaxed atmosphere, and more opportunities for organic conversation. Register here

Learn to Build Apps at BC Dublin in June

New to programming, or new to Swift and iOS? Always wanted to learn to build iPhone apps? Have a Mac laptop? Want three credits while studying in Dublin in June? Are you a nice person and good team member? Then this program is for you!

A new course, Swift/iOS Bootcamp – Dublin, offered through the Woods School, will count the same as ISYS2160 – Learn to Program Using Swift for iOS Development. The course will be offered at Boston College - Ireland, in the heart of Dublin and will be taught by Prof. Gallaugher of the Carroll School Information Systems Department. This course will count as an elective toward the Information Systems Concentration, or as a replacement for the concentration-required course: ISYS 2157 Programming for Management and Analytics. Any student can also take this as an elective. All schools and majors are welcome to apply, except for students who have already taken ISYS2160. Learn more here.

Application deadline is Wednesday Feb. 13, 2019
SING IT TO THE HEIGHTS!

Come one, come all, and watch as ten talented BC singers compete in this year's 15th Annual Sing it to the Heights! YOU will choose the winner of the show at the end of the night when we turn to the audience to cast their votes. Tickets are $12 and will go on sale Monday, February 18th at 8:00am. Tickets can be purchased in person at the Robsham Box Office or online. All proceeds from this event go to the Saint Columbkille Partnership School to fund their music program. With donations from this event St. Columbkille has been able to: upgrade their facilities, offer larger classes, and secure new instruments for their students. Tickets go fast so make sure to get yours soon!

This event will take place on Thursday, February 28th @ 7pm in Robsham Theatre.

BC GET is hiring

BC GET is a fully student-run business that does dining hall to dorm food delivery. With over 400 existing customer and deep relationships with BC Dining, BC GET needs next year’s team who are ready to take this business to the next level. We are hiring all the way from our executive team to business functions, pay for all positions is above minimum wage. Our team emphasizes on real world problem solving and networking opportunities. This has helped our alumni be hired at a number of places including Amazon, Facebook, Oracle and more. Check out our website to learn more about getting involved!

Join The Gavel!

The Gavel is looking for business team members. There are two different types of positions available called "Coordinators," one on the marketing team and another on the development team. The development team coordinates with local businesses to hold fundraisers, manages the paper's money, and is in charge of advertising. Alternatively, the marketing team manages the paper's image through social media, coordinates with other BC clubs to hold collaborative events such as open mic nights, and raises awareness about our paper. Neither of these positions are responsible for writing articles. Any interested students can contact either Sagenay Dubois at duboissa@bc.edu or Mariah Belisle at belisima@bc.edu.
Summer Internship Abroad: diiVe

diiVe is looking for students studying business who want to build their professional experience, by working abroad for an exciting start-up this summer in Cape Town, South Africa. diiVe teaches students block chain and data science skills, which are necessary for the ever-evolving world of business. Check out diiVe www.godiive.com for more information about this opportunity to gain new skills, work in a start-up setting, and focus on social impact! The director of diiVe, Elspeth Boynton, is coming to campus February 15-22 and would love the opportunity to speak to students in CSOM about the opportunity. If you have any questions, please contact Kelsey Lally at lallyke@bc.edu.

Calling all undergrad entrepreneurs on your campus!

Now through March 31st with $10,000 up for grabs, GMAC will accept proposals from students that solve a social issue and motivate their classmates to join the effort. We want US college students to use their problem-solving skills and access to MBA students, professors, and faculty advisors to connect the dots between social entrepreneurship and a graduate business education.

What do students need to do?

- Submit an idea in the form of a Product, Service, or Program that has the potential to impact and improve the lives of others
- Provide supporting rationale outlining the strategy and why this approach will be successful
- Create a visual demonstration of the concept, such as a website, sketch, video, social campaign, etc.

Students will compete for a Grand Prize of $10,000 and four First Place prizes of $500 each. For more information on the competition, visit gmat.com/think2019.
