INFORMATION AND APPLICATION FOR THE J.D./LL.M. PROGRAM WITH UNIVERSITE OF PARIS I / SORBONNE LAW SCHOOL

The Program

Boston College J.D. students have a unique opportunity to spend their 3L year enrolled as LL.M. students at the Sorbonne Law School of the Université Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne, under two programs, the French-language LL.M. in French and European Law and the English language LL.M. in Business Law.

Upon completion of all requirements at the end of the third year, students will receive both the Boston College J.D. and the Paris I LL.M. The aim of the two tailor-made programs is to offer law students and future lawyers the trans-systemic and global knowledge necessary for transnational legal practice, in-depth acquaintance with the intricacies of French and European Law and a new perspective on current global legal issues while learning in the best of the French academic tradition and Civil Law methodological techniques.

Students participating in the LL.M in French and European Law who are interested in admission to the French Bar must take the New York Bar exam and then apply for the French equivalency exam on the basis of their admission in New York. Graduates of this program are not eligible to gain entrance to the French Bar directly after this program. However, students who finish this LL.M. degree may register for an additional year in Paris and join the Master I and or in some cases the Master II degrees in Law. Graduates with the Master I or II may be able to sit for the French Bar Exam directly without admission in New York first.

Graduates of the LL.M in Business Law do not have a pathway to the French bar at this time.

A maximum of two Boston College students may participate each year, in each program.

The School

With eight hundred years of excellence to build on, the University of Paris 1 Panthéon Sorbonne, a descendant of the Sorbonne and the Faculty of Law and Economics of Paris, is one of the largest universities in France today. Some forty thousand students are enrolled in 14 teaching and research departments (Unités de Formation et de Recherche) and 5 Institutes, which offer top level degree courses in law, political science, economics, management and the humanities. Paris I is at the center of a rich network of international relations stretching across five continents and continues to play a major role in the training of researchers, academics, judges, lawyers, senior managers and top French civil servants.

The school is centrally located in the vibrant Latin Quarter, the Paris home of university students for almost a thousand years.

Evaluation and Grading System

In Paris, students will be required to take both oral and written exams. Depending upon the course, students may also be required to write papers or provide oral presentations.

Grades are distributed on a 20-point scale, with 20 being the highest. The minimum grade for transfer to Boston College Law School is a 10. French honors, or “mention”s are given as follows:

- Assez bien (Good) for a final grade of between 12 – 13.9
- Bien (Very Good) for a grade between 14 – 15.9
- Très bien (Excellent) for a grade of 16 or higher

BC Law transcripts do not list French grades and reflect only credits for work conducted at the University of Paris I.

Transferring Credits:

As a condition to receiving credit, students:

- Must submit a hard copy of course titles, credit hours and descriptions (in English) to the Registrar’s Office for approval in advance and must confirm their final registration as soon as it is done and while there is still opportunity to make changes. Failure to receive advance approval may jeopardize credit transfer. The acceptance of any credit or grade for courses taken at Sorbonne Law School is subject to approval, and any changes must be communicated immediately to the susan.simonekang@bc.edu
- Must earn a grade of “10” or better. No credit will be awarded for courses taken on pass/fail basis.
- Only the credits will transfer and the grades will not count toward honors and awards (such as graduation prizes or degree rankings such as cum laude, magna cum laude, and summa cum laude.)
- Must not duplicate coursework taken at BC Law.
- May not transfer law-related graduate coursework from outside a Faculty of Law toward their J.D. degree.

You are responsible for checking with the Office of Academic and Student Services to ensure that you will complete all other J.D. program requirements at BC Law prior to departure for the program.
