

Lynch School of Education American Heritages Interdisciplinary Major

This major, designed for students in the Lynch School of Education who are pursuing Elementary Education or Applied Psychology and Human Development. This major fulfills the Arts and Sciences program requirements for students in teacher certification programs. The major is recommended for students who are interested in the American Heritage from the literary, social, and historical perspectives.

This 27-credit major comprises:

- 4 required courses
- 5 concentration and elective courses; 3 concentration courses and 2 electives
 - 3 concentration courses (9 credits) must be selected from one of disciplines. One course must be at the advanced level (3000 or above)
 - 2 elective courses. One course must be at the 3000 or above and one must be from a different discipline than the concentration courses
 - Courses must be unique and will not count multiple times in the degree

A. Four Required Courses – 12 credits

Choose two of the following Foundation in American History Courses – 6 credits
Course number and title:	Credits	Fall	Spring	Notes
HIST2401 U.S. History I	3	✓		Discussion: HIST2403
HIST2402 U.S. History II	3		✓	Discussion: HIST2404
HIST2475 America's War in Vietnam	3	✓

Choose two of the following Foundation in American Literature Courses – 6 credits
Course number and title:	Credits	Fall	Spring	Notes
ENGL2141 American Literary History I	3	✓
ENGL2142 American Literary History II	3		✓
ENGL2143 American Literary History III	3	✓

B. Three Concentration Courses – 9 credits

Choose three courses from the same discipline – One must be at the Advanced Level
Department	Discipline	Credits
AADS	African and African Diaspora Studies	9
ENGL	English	9
HIST	History	9
POLI	Political Science	9
SOCY	Sociology	9

C. Two Elective Courses – 6 credits

Choose two elective courses – 6 credits
Select two courses from an approved discipline. One must be from a different discipline than the concentration and at least one course must be at the advanced level and may be a concentration or elective course. Courses related to America can be found in the following departments: AADS, ARTH, ENGL, FILM, HIST, POLI, SOCY, THTR. Students should consult the Agora Portal for accuracy of course offerings. New courses related to the American Heritages major may be approved to apply to the major. Contact Champion 104 staff for a list of current approved courses or for questions.