

BOSTON COLLEGE
Lynch School of Education and Human Development

Foundation in Education Minor
For CSOM, CSON, MCAS student only

All students, except Lynch School students, are eligible to declare this 18 credit minor. The minor consists of six courses (18 credits). The courses are listed below and descriptions can also be found in the Boston College Undergraduate catalog. This minor does not lead to certification.

Required Courses (15 credits)	Credits
APSY/EDUC 1030 Child Growth and Development or APSY 2041 Adolescent Psychology or APSY 3244 Adult Psychology	3
APSY/EDUC 1031 Family, School and Society	3
APSY 2032 Psychology of Learning	3
EDUC 1044 Working with Special Needs Students	3
EDUC 3308 Bilingualism in Schools and Communities	3

Elective	Credits
One APSY course; seek approval from Undergraduate Student Services, Campion Hall 104	3

PROCESS FOR INDIVIDUAL APPROVAL
(Consult the web site for specific instructions)

1. Write a cover letter requesting a transcript review.
2. Send the cover letter, an official transcript and any documented experience in a school or classroom environment to:

The Massachusetts Department of Elementary and Secondary Education
75 Pleasant Street, Malden, MA 02148-4906
(781) 338-3000 <www.doe.mass.edu> www.mtel.nesinc.com

The Lynch School is not involved in this process at all since this minor has not been approved by the State of Massachusetts to lead to certification.