

BOSTON COLLEGE
Lynch School of Education and Human Development

TELL: Teaching English Language Learners Certificate
For Undergraduate LSEHD students only

The Lynch School of Education and Human Development at Boston College offers a certificate program in Teaching English Language Learners (TELL). Candidates should be working toward a licensure in an education field (early childhood, elementary, secondary, etc.). This program is designed to prepare mainstream teachers to work with emergent bilingual learners/English Language Learners in their mainstream classroom settings. The certificate requires two courses and completion of a field experience in a classroom that includes bilingual learners.

| Required Courses (6 credits) | Credits | Notes |
|---|----------------|--------------|
| EDUC 6346/6347 Teaching Bilingual Students* | 3 | |
| EDUC 3308 Bilingualism in School and Communities | 3 | |

| Required Field Experience | Credits | Notes |
|--|----------------|--------------|
| One of the required pre-practicum experiences (EDUC 2151, 3152 or 3153) must be completed in a classroom with emergent bilingual students/English language learners. | | |

*EDUC 6346 is for elementary education majors and EDUC 6347 is for secondary education majors.

Questions?: Please contact Dr. Mariela Paez at mariela.paez@bc.edu.