

Applied Psychology and Human Development

Class of 2023 and beyond

Required courses: 6 courses (18 credits)	Fall	Spring	Prerequisite/Notes
APSY/EDUC 1030 Child Growth and Development (3cr)	✓	✓	Take first semester in program
APSY/EDUC 1031 Family, School and Society (3cr)	✓	✓	Take first year in program
APSY 2041 Adolescent Psychology (3cr) OR APSY 3244 Adult Psychology (3cr)	✓	✓
APSY 2216 Applied Psychology Research Methods (3cr)	✓	✓
APSY 2217 Statistics for Applied Psychology (3cr)	✓	✓	APSY 2216 Research Methods strongly recommended
APSY 2152 Applied Psychology Practicum: Pathways Work & Life (3cr)	✓	✓	Junior/Senior standing

Students should select a FOCUS AREA (3 courses/9 credits) from the options below.	Students should select 3 ELECTIVES from the options below.
Consult Course Information & Schedule for course availability.	Electives must differ from major (6 courses from top box) and your selected focus area (3 courses listed under focus area) requirements.
A. Human Services & Health Sciences <ol style="list-style-type: none"> APSY 2241 Mental Illness: Social and Clinical Perspectives APSY 3243 Counseling Theories APSY 4151 Health Psychology B. Organization Studies and Human Capital <ol style="list-style-type: none"> MGMT 1021 Organizational Behavior APSY 2242 Interpersonal Relations APSY 4211 Psychology of Work C. Policy, Advocacy & Community Change <ol style="list-style-type: none"> APSY 2243 Social Oppression and Transformation APSY 6348 Prevention & Intervention Strategies for Children, Families & Communities APSY 6397 Social Issues and Social Policy D. Science of Learning <ol style="list-style-type: none"> APSY 2032 Psychology of Learning APSY 3233 Motivation and Self-Regulated Learning APSY 6421 Translating Science of Learning into Practice 	1. Any Applied Developmental & Educational Psychology (APSY) course¹ ¹Listing of APSY courses can be found on the back of this form 2. Any Psychology (PSYC) or Sociology (SOCY) course² ²Review the BC Course Catalogue for options 3. Any of the following pre-approved electives: MGMT 1021 Organizational Behavior ELHE 7103 Education Law and Public Policy* EDUC1044 Working with Special Needs Students EDUC3308 Bilingualism in Schools and Communities EDUC6495 Human Development and Disabilities EDUC649601 Foundations of Autism Spectrum Disorder* *indicates graduate level course open to juniors/seniors with permission from course instructor NOTE: While the electives listed above are pre-approved, if you select a course outside of APSY, you must complete paperwork in Campion 104 to have it counted toward the major. Additional courses may serve as electives upon approval from program director.

Applied Developmental and Educational Psychology (APSY) courses that may be used to fulfill elective requirements

APSY 2241 Mental Illness: Social and Clinical Perspectives
APSY 2243 Social Oppression and Transformation
APSY 2032 Psychology of Learning
APSY 2240 Personality Theories
APSY 2295 Spirituality, Religion & College Student Experience
APSY 2242 Interpersonal Relations
APSY 3243 Counseling Theories
APSY 3233 Motivation and Self-Regulated Learning
APSY 3248 Gender Roles
APSY 3310 Contemporary Issues in Applied Psychology & Human Behavior
APSY 3375 Educational Leadership in Higher Education
APSY 4050 Public Health Practice in the Community
APSY 4151 Health Psychology
APSY 4901 Readings and Research
APSY 4211 Psychology of Work
APSY 4050 Public Health Practice in the Community
APSY 4961 Senior Thesis I
APSY 4962 Senior Thesis II
APSY 6348 Prevention & Intervention Strategies for Children, Families & Communities
APSY 6350 Incident Response & Management
APSY 6397 Social Issues and Social Policy
APSY 6421 Translating Science of Learning into Practice
APSY 6420 Positive Youth Development
APSY 6500 Organizational Effectiveness: Governance, Risk Management, and Compliancy
APSY 6925 Cybersecurity: Risk & Resiliency
APSY 7471 Psychological Responses to Humanitarian Crises*

*indicates graduate level course open to juniors/seniors with permission from course instructor