Special Education Assistant Teacher (Grades 4-6)

Manville School (Boston, MA) is a therapeutic day school serving students with social, emotional, behavioral, neurological, and learning challenges.

Work as part of a classroom team with mentor Special Education teacher and classroom counselor. Interact with other team members across disciplines. Responsible for lesson plan implementation and classroom management. Ideal position for new graduates or internship site.

Position offers weekly team and individual supervision, opportunities for professional development, and a competitive salary and benefits package. 10-month school year and optional 20-day summer program.

Bachelor Degree and 1 year experience required. Prior experience w/ similar population preferred. Salary based on experience and any teaching certification, in the range of $28,500-$32,500.

Immediate start.

To apply, please send your resume and cover letter to:
Ashley Lawreck
Middle School 1 Educational Supervisor, Manville School
617.278.4257
alawreck@jbcc.harvard.edu