

Resources for International Students

Resources	What They Do	Contact Info
Career Center	Resume revisions, Practice interviews and Drop-in hours	http://www.bc.edu/offices/careers
Counselling Center	Wellness group, Counseling sessions, Emergency: walk-in, or 24 hours calling	https://www.bc.edu/offices/counseling/
Graduate Education Association in Lynch	Various school events for graduate students in general	http://www.bcgea.com/
International Ambassador in Lynch	Students can write to IA about your concerns and ask for suggestions for resources	changgu@bc.edu
Graduate Student Association	Throughout years, they will host events for students. You can attend these events and socialize with other students. Graduate Students of Color Association (GSCA) Graduate International Student Association (GISA)	https://www.bc.edu/offices/gsc/graduate_student_association/senate.html
Housing	Information on off-campus housing for international students and scholars	https://www.bc.edu/offices/reslife/offcampus/international.html https://offcampushousing.bc.edu/
The Institute for the Study and Promotion of Race and Culture (ISPRC): Race Culture Challengers (RCC)	RCC puts on events for the BC community on race and culture. Students can attend events and discuss issues about race and culture with the community.	rccbostoncollege@gmail.com
The Institute for the Study and Promotion of Race and Culture (ISPRC): International Student Advocates (INSTA)	INSTA provides the space for international graduate students to socialize with other students and discuss issues related to international student community.	insta.bostoncollege@gmail.com lianzhe.zheng@bc.edu

Office of Health Promotion	80 student health coaches who facilitate health education programming on nutrition, time management, stress management, sleep education, and alcohol and drug education.	Gasson Hall basement healthpromotion@bc.edu, p: 617-552-9900
Office of International Students and Scholars - OISS	Thanksgiving Day Host Program, International Assistant Program, Conversation Partners Program, Connors Family Learning Center. In Connors Family Learning Center, they have Speaking assistance, Writing assistance, Online tutorial, International Graduate Student Lunch Discussion Series and English Conversation Club	https://www.bc.edu/offices/oiss/
Robsham Theater Arts Center	6 discounted museum memberships available to students Also, as BC student, you can go to lots of museums for free in Boston area. You can check it out on their websites.	rtickets@bc.edu 617-552-4800
Student Clubs	From the African Student Organization to the Vietnamese Student Organization, BC has a number of student clubs and organizations, including groups for and by international students. An alphabetical list can be found here: https://orgsync.com/browse_orgs/510
Support Group for PhD Student of Color	MSW/PhD Social Work Student, School of Social Work Boston College Bi-weekly discussion held by social work PhD students about PhD students of color's experience at BC Facebook Group: https://www.facebook.com/groups/1492106377537859/	Dale Dagar Maglalan, maglalan@bc.edu
Women's Center	The Women's Center (WC) support, educate, and empower students of all genders in an inclusive and welcoming space. They provided mentoring programs, events and conversations that cultivate leadership, authentic relationships, and awareness of intersectional social justice issues.	women@bc.edu p.617-552-3480
University Health Services	At Boston College Health Services, we take special care of students. Whether you have a health emergency, a concern about nutrition, or a bad case of flu, you can expect excellent care, dispensed by health professionals who are friendly, concerned and accessible.	uhs@bc.edu 617-552-3225