INTRODUCTORY LATIN: SUMMER INTENSIVE

June 11, 2018—August 2, 2018, Monday—Thursday 8:45 AM—11:45 AM

This introductory course in Latin presumes no prior study of the language. Basic principles of Latin morphology and syntax will be treated in class and reinforced by regular homework exercises and subsequent review. Our textbook is John F. Collins, A Primer of Ecclesiastical Latin, the vocabulary and exercises of which are taken from the Vulgate, the Latin liturgy, and other ecclesiastical texts. The goals of the course are to learn the basics of Latin grammar and to translate ecclesiastical Latin into clear idiomatic English. This course is highly intensive, requiring significant weekly work and independent learning.

PRE-COURSE WORK

Read Collins, Primer, Unit 1 (pp. 1-11, excluding Drills). Memorize first declension noun endings (p. 7) as well as vocabulary on pp. 9-10. There will be a vocabulary quiz on the first day of class.

REQUIRED READING
