

OUR PHILADELPHIA

SCREENING AND CONVERSATION

Join us as we screen Our Philadelphia, a documentary short about grief and the aftermath of gun violence from the perspective of teenagers. In this short film, teenagers from one all-male school in West Philadelphia detail the rupture that occurs when they learn about a shooting and the many ways they memorialize their friends. A panel discussion and audience Q&A will follow the screening.

Dr. Nora Gross

Producer of Our Philadelphia / Core Fellow / Visiting Assistant Professor of Sociology at Boston College

Dr. Robert Motley Jr.

Assistant Professor at the Boston College School of Social Work / Principal Director of the RB-VIP Lab

Malaika Palacios

Clinical Social Work student on the Health/Mental Health track

Friday, April 22nd | 3:30-5pm | McGuinn 521

This event is free and open to all BCSSW students, and pizza will be served. RSVP here or at the QR code above: <https://forms.gle/kJLSYhYVNnzVWKJR6>

BOSTON COLLEGE
School of Social Work

TRAUMA INTEGRATION INITIATIVE

BOSTON COLLEGE
School of Social Work

RACISM-BASED VIOLENCE INJURY & PREVENTION LAB