

Boston College and The Triggered Project present:

TRIGGERED LIFE

November 10, 2023 | 4:30pm–6:30pm
Murray Function Room: Yawkey

On Friday, November 10th, join Roxann Mascoll, M.S., M.S.W, LICSW and lead clinician to The Triggered Project, and Keith Mascoll, founder of The Triggered Project, to discuss effective treatment modalities for Black and Brown men who have experienced sexual trauma. This exploration will provide MSW and Nursing students with insight into how to begin thinking about treatment that provides a welcoming space for Black and Brown men’s mental wellness.

The event is open to all MSW and nursing students
