

INSTITUTE FOR ADVANCED JESUIT STUDIES
BOSTON COLLEGE

IN-RESIDENCE FELLOWS

Application, 2022 – 2023

The Institute awards in-residence fellowships to facilitate the completion and/or publication of academic work related to the Society of Jesus. Preference will be given to applications that propose publication projects for the Institute of Jesuit Sources and IJS Studies during their fellowship at the Institute. More information about the Institute’s fellowship program—including its benefits and requirements—can be found at <https://www.bc.edu/iajs>.

To apply, please complete the following application and submit it along with the required materials to iajs@bc.edu with “fellowship” in the subject line.

Name: _____

Institution: _____

Email: _____

Title/Position: _____

Permanent Address: _____

Please indicate if you are applying for one- or two-semester fellowship (indicate all that apply):

___ One semester, Fall 2022

___ One semester, Spring 2023

Two semesters, 2022 – 2023

Please provide the contact information (name, institution, email) for your two recommenders

Recommender 1: _____

Recommender 2: _____

Required information to accompany the application form includes:

- Current curriculum vitae
- Sample of scholarly work, of no more than 30 pages
- Statement of purpose, of 1,500-2,000 words
- Official transcript (for applicants still enrolled in school)

The letters supporting your application should be sent by the recommenders directly to the Institute.

The Institute for Advanced Jesuit Studies, founded in 2014, seeks to deepen understanding and appreciation of the history, spirituality, educational heritage, and pedagogical approach of the Society of Jesus through courses, workshops, publications, and scholarly symposia. More information about its initiatives can be found at www.bc.edu/iajs.