THE GUN VIOLENCE MORASS: FINDING A WAY OUT
WITH DR. MARK L. ROSENBERG

Mark L. Rosenberg, MD, MPP, is a board-certified physician in psychiatry, neurology, and internal medicine with training in public policy and infectious diseases. Dr. Rosenberg worked at CDC for 20 years, where he worked on enteric diseases, the eradication of smallpox as well as HIV/AIDS. He also helped to develop the public health approach to violence prevention and to establish the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control. Throughout his career, Dr. Rosenberg has championed a public health approach to gun violence prevention. He served as President and CEO of The Task Force for Global Public Health, which grew to become ranked as the second largest charitable organization in the US. Dr. Rosenberg is a member of the National Academy of Medicine and was awarded the Surgeon General’s Exemplary Service Medal. He is married to Jill Rosenberg, has a daughter Julie and a son Benjamin, and two grandchildren.

When: Tuesday, November 15th at 4pm
Where: 245 Beacon St.
Room 501

Sponsored by: Global Public Health and the Common Good Program

publichealth@bc.edu