An in-depth, five-day professional development program for U.S. and international students, legal educators, and legal professionals at a premier law school and experiential learning leader in greater Boston. Taught by distinguished members of the faculty and former justices of the Massachusetts Supreme Judicial Court.

Join expert Boston College Law School faculty for a five-day introduction to U.S. Constitutional Law. Topics will include an exploration of the 1st and 14th Amendments, the role of precedent, responsibilities of the lawyer in the U.S., and legal problem-solving through simulation.

As part of this program, Visiting Professor Pedro Lenza will hold a session comparing the rule of law in the U.S. and Brazil. Sessions are highly interactive; participants receive materials to prepare in advance of the program.

Day 1: Introduction and History of the U.S. Legal System
Day 2: Professional Responsibility and the Role of the Lawyer
Day 3: 1st Amendment to the U.S. Constitution
Day 4: 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution
Day 5: The Future of Constitutional Law / Special Session: The Rule of Law in the U.S. and Brazil

Participants will have six hours of sessions each day.

JANUARY 7-11, 2019

Register for the 5-day program for $1,000, or register for one or more individual days at $225 per day.

Program fee includes:
- Session materials
- Breakfast, lunch, snacks

Program fee does not include:
housing, airfare, visa expenses, insurance, local transportation, and meals or other items not listed above.

Register: www.bc.edu/insights

Registration deadline: December 7, 2018