DEATHS

acille derson, Hildur str. John J. sold, Rév. stroid Greens

yer, Ida M. Jaker, George F

than, Witnam anahue, James E. Franko, John er, Frank G. en. Cella missilette, N. zgerald, Mary E. herty, P. J. mn. M. J. ink. Christian drajtis, Anna ist, Mildred I. ba. John

DEATHS

JACEY Of Norwood and Walpol July 8 Pauline L. Stacey, Funera

TELLBERGER - Hogerst Only July 5. Ruth (McGrath). The wife of William F. Stellberger

MT. BENEDICT COUNCIL #75 KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

GEORGE DILBOY POST 529, V.F.W.

ARLINGTON CATHOLIC

I.B.T.W, LOCAL 2

WOMEN OF MOOSE

BOSTON GAS WORKERS UNION LOCAL 12003, D. 50, U.M.W.A.

and 7-10 p.m.
Thomas J. Joyce. Pres.
A. DeCristoforo, Rec. Sec

LEO FAVA. G. K. LAWRENCE FAHY, Rec.

L Dorchester Post 154 A.L. wish neutore the passing of Comrade R. Harrigan, 9 Heston Terrace, letter, Legion, ritual will be ob-d at 8 p.m. Sunday, Richard Hodgdon, Commander Herbert Bancroft, Adjutant 1954 Janes R. Irwin-1968 lasses being said at St. Anthony brine. Arch St., Boston, Lovingl tmembered by his wife, Margaret.

IN MEMORIAM

Killed in sciton in Victnam, Mass being said at St. Peter's Church, Bowdoln St. Dorchester at 9 a.m. on Monday, July 5, Flease de not send flowers.

1933—Sarah A. Chrisom—1968
Anniversary Mass Monday, July 6, at 7 a.m. at Sacred Heart Church North Quiney.

OBITUARIES

Arlington Church Thronged At Rites for Slain Girl, 20

held in Immaculate Concep-tion. Church on Saturday's morning for Anne Marie Pierce, 20 who was shot to death in Arlington on Tues-day.

LATÉ DEATH NOTICES

Memory Centers and Arts. Li-Memory Comments and the Criminal Division of the attorney gen-eral's, office, where American Chief Charles Rogovin. Two state troopers formed an honor guard at the entrance to the church on Alewife Brook plays, as the walmut church behind her grieving payents.

parents.
Anne Marie, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Winslow O. Pierce of 109 Milton st., Arlington, was shot to death Tuesday night

SALEM Dr. DeWitt S. Clark, of 2 Oliver st., a surgeon for many years, died unexpectedly Saturday morning. He recently retired from active practice.

Dr. Clark, graduated from Cale in 1908 and from Harv-ard Medical Schol in 1912.

He served his internship at Boston Lying-In Hospital and at Massachusetts Gener-al Hospital, and was in the Medical Corps in Europe during World War I.

during World War I.

After the war Dr. Clark, Paul Dudley White, Boston heart surgeon and physician to former. President Eisenhower, and a team of doctors, stemmed an epidemic in Greece. For his ervices, he was decorated by the king of Greece.

He was chief of surgery at Salem Hospital in 1960 and was honored by the Massa-chusetts Medical Society in 1966 as a 50-year member.

J. E. Laurendeau Mass Tuesday In Wakefield

WAKEFIELD — A solemn requiem Mass for Joseph E. Laurendeau, 60, state agent for the Royal Globe Insur-ance Companies, will be sung Tuesday at 10 a.m. in St. Florence Church.

Mr. Laurendeau died Friday evening at his home, 6 Shetland rd., following an illness of several months.

He was born in Boston's Hyde Park and resided here for 18 years.

Mr. Laurendeau was a member of the St. Florence Holy Name Sogiety, Wake-field Council of Knights of Columbus, Bay State Insurance Assn., Insurance Library and Conference Club of Boston, and the Royal group composed of veteran employees.

He had also been active in civic affairs here, civic affairs here.

Mr. Laurendeau leaves his wife. Elicen (McDonough); two daughters, Linda A. and Phyllis M., at home; a son, and Phyllis M., at home; a son, Laurendeau of Somerville; a sister, Mrs. Harold Adams of Brinitres, and four brothers,
Brinitres, and four brothers,
of Milford, Alfred of North Weymouth, and George Laurendeau of Lexington.

R.I. Man Held In Slaying of Warwick Girl

REHOBOTH — State Po-lice said Saturday they ar-rested an East Providence, Ice said Saturday they ar-rested an East Providence, R.I. iron Worker on a charge of murder after he told them he had killed a Rhode Island woman, earlier in the day.

Arraigned in Taunton Dis-trict Court and ordered to undergo 35 days observation at Bridgewater State Hospi-tal was Thomas Flemming Jr., 25.

Selected Prize WWII Photo

as scores of shocked neighbors watched.

Her ex-fiance, Thombors watched.

Her ex-fiance, Thombors watched.

Curtin, was arrested shortly after the shooting by Artington Police detectives, and is now committed to the Westboro State Hospital for psychilatric poservation pending an appearance in Middlesex County District Court to face murder and assaut charges.

The funeral services for Miss Pierce were held in the same church where she was scheduled io. be married to Curtin on Aug. 3. The couple during the couple of the couple of two weeks ago.

Burial was in Westview Cemetery, Lexington.

Dr. D. S. Clark Was Surgeon

Assn., and the Essex Surgi-

He leaves a nephew, Leigh F. Clark of Beverly.

Services will be Wednesday at 12 noon in Tabernacle Congregational Church, Washington st.

Mrs. Souvaine Of Reading, 76; Rites Private

READING — Services will be private for journalist Mrs. Mabel Hill Souvaine, 76, of 25 Scotland rd., who died Friday in Emerson Hos-pital, Conord, after a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Souvaine for many years served on the editorial boards of Woman's Day mag-azine and was its editor-in-chief in 1943-57.

Born in Elizabeth, N.J., he was educated at Columia and Temple universities and before her association with Woman's Day, was a artner and vice president in the Hill-Winsten Adversising agency.

Mrs. Souvaine's late hus-band, Henry, was producer of the Metropolitan Opera in 1954 and was also affiliated with the Ziegfield Follies.

Mrs. Souvaine moved to Reading from New York City four years ago, and was active as a free lance writer until her death.

She leaves her son, Henry B. of Reading, and three

Charlestown Couple's Rites Set Monday

Funeral services will be held Monday for Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McLaugh, in of Charlestown, who died within 24 hours of each other. Mr. McLaughlin, 68, of 9 Short st., suffered a fatal heart attack enroute to Manhard to the st., suffered a fatal registrict. T. Miskell, 68, died registre for the McLaughlins, both born in Iraland, leave four sons, John of Melrose, Francis of Everett, Bernard of Charlestown, and Anthony of Melrose.

A solemn requiem Mass will be offered at 9 a.m. Monday in St. Francis de monday in St. Francis de in Oak Grove Cemetery, Medford.

250 at Rites For N.Y. Park Sniper Victim

United Press International

United Fren International
LDNNVILLE, Pa, — Lilah
Kistler, 24, a small town girl who was killed-by-a-eniperin New Ypris' Central Park, was buried Saturday in the family plot at Lynnville Cemelery.
Some 250 relatives and friends, many from New York, attended the 10:30 a.m. funeral services in Kingston, a suburb of Wilkesbarre about 50 miles north of this town with a population of about 100.
Rev. Robert J. Lukens,

Rev. Robert J. Lukens, pastor of the First United Methodist Church of Kings-

Nashua Man N.H.'s 138th

Denis F. O'Brien, 70, Business, Civic Leader

WALPOLE — Denis F.
O'Brien, 10, or 40 Common committee and of the Personnel Board of the Personnel Board O'Brien was also a men Cooperative Bank died Sat-urday. He retired two years age, He retired two years age as assistant treasurer of the Dewey and Almy Chemical Co. of Cambridge. He was born in South Bos-ton and resided there until 1905 when he moved to Wal-mole.

Mr. O'Brien was chairman of the Walpole Board of Ap-peals and treasurer of the Walpole Housing Authority. He was a member of the First Friday Club of Boston and a former member of

Mr. Befeler, 55, owner of Photo Hawaii, had been a heart patient for several years. His death apparently was caused by heart failure. Miss Gibbs, He was photo editor in the Pacific for the Associated Press when photographer Joe Rosenthal captured the American flag raising at Iwo Jima in 1945. Was Educator In Newton; 83

Rosenthal, who later was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for the photograph, credited Mr. Befeler's editing with the wide acclaim received by the picture.

Murray Befeler,

Associated Press

HONOLULU — Veteran
Honolulu photographer
Murray Befeler — the man credited with selecting the Pulltzer Prize-winning

Pulitzer Prize-winning photo of the flag raising at Iwo Jima — died Friday at Queen's Medical Center here.

by the picture.

Born in New York City, Mr. Befeler worked for The Associated Press in Washington, New York and San Francisco before coming to the Pacific.

He and his wife returned to live in Hawaii after the war and he went into business as a partner in Photo Hawaii. He later became sole owner.

Hawaii. He later became sole owner.

Interviewed three years ago about his role in selecting the Mt. Suribachi photograph, Mr. Befeler minimized his own role:

"Three of us saw the negative in the hypo. I selected the thing and we sent it immediately by radio from Guam.

the thing and we sent it immediately by radio from Guam.
But Rosenthal, now a photographer for the San Francisco Chronicle, gave Mr. Beteler much more credit; the picture and Murray had to decide that it was good enough to be scheduled via radiophoto, or it would have been passed over and been nothing but a piece of film.

210. Bardelle lawage his

Mr. Befeler leaves his wife, Mary, and a son, Mi-chael.

***** Capt Morris Services Set

Services for U. S. Army Capt. Thomas Morris, 25, formerly of Melrose, will be held Wednesday with a Solinia Wednesday with a Solinia Wednesday with a Solinia St. Mairice's Church at Glenbrook, Ct.

The 1984 graduate of Boston College died June 25 in a truck accident in Vietnam. In addition to B.C., he also still the service of Law and Diplomatory of Tuffs, and at Harvard. Capt. Morris leaves his wife, the former Janice Bradford of Melrose; a daughter, Loren, 18 months; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Morris of Stamford, Ct., and a brother,

Harold Segar Rites Tuesday In Belmont

In Belmont

Services will be held Tuesday at 11 am. in the Short, Williamson and Diamond funeral home, Belmont, for. Harold V. Segar, d.a master electrician with the Belmont town electric department.
The World War II veteran of the New Zealand Navy came to the United States in 1952 and became a citizen and the War Zealand Navy came to the United States in 1952 and became a citizen and the was a past master of Belmont Lodge A.F. and A.M., a 32d degree Mason, and a member of the Scottish Rite Bodies, of Boston and Adelpos Shrine.
Jane S. (McParland); two daughters. Wands L. and Sandra, at home; his mother, Mrs. Gorden Brophy, and a sister, Mrs. William Bloomfield, both of New Zealand.

****** Mrs. Ham, 82, Of Newton, Dies

Committee and of the Per-sonnel Board.
O'Brien was also a mem-ber of the Walpole Council of Knights of Columbus and Holy Name Society.
A solemn Mass of requier will be offered Tuesday at 9 a.m. in Blessed Sacrament Church.

Songwriter, Vaudevillian Bennett Ryan

LEONIA, N. J. — Song-writer and vaudeville per-former Bennett A. Ryan, who wrote "inka Dinka Doo" for comedian Jimmy Durante, died at his home Friday after a long illness. He was 77.

Among Mr. Ryan's other better known songs are "Heart of My Heart," "MISSISSIPPI," and "When Frances Dances With Me." He also wrote material for comedians Jack Benny, Groucho Marx and Fred Allen.

Allen.

The Kansas City native broke into show business at the age of 12. His wife, Helen, said he counted among his closest friends the late singer Sophie Tucker and the late writer, Ring Lerdner. Services will be held Tuesday.

In Newton; o.) Services for Marion Brewster Gibbs, 83, a retired Newton educator, will be a new or service of the service of Jet Hits Homes; Pilot Killed

DALLAS — A jet fighter piloted by a Navy Reservist crashed shortly after takeoff Saturday, killing the filer and smashing into two residences and a garage.

The residents of the homes

The residents of the homes were away.
The pilot was Li. Gary Tretter, 31, of Grand Prairie.
Tenco-Yought
Both homes and the detached garage caught fire.
The homes were severely damaged and the garage with a car inside was destroyed.
Qflicials at the scene warned speciators, saying the plane carried live ammunition But no ammunition explosions occurred.

Gen Ramcke, A Top Hitler

Commander Commander
KAPPELN, Germany
Gen Benhard Reme, commander of German perachittle troops during World War II, died here Thursday, a spokesman announced Saturday. He was 79.
...Gen Ramcke was one of Adolf Hilter's most decorated officers.
Best on Sept. 20, 1944. A French court charged him with war crimes and sentenced him for five years in prison in 1951 but he was released shortly afterward because of failing health.

Mrs. Wm. Stellberger

Mrs. Wm. Stellberger

Quincy Mass Monday

Quincy Mass Monday

Mrs. Ruth (McGrath) Stellberger of It Rhoberson ter,

Mrs. Ruth (McGrath) Stellberger of It Rhoberson ter,

day, will be held Monday at 9 a.m. with a solemn requiren

Mass in St. Mary's Church,

West Quincy.

Mrs. Stellberger leaves her

h u s b a nd, William; two daughters, Lee Marie and Patti Ann; two sons, William

Jr. and John, all of West

Quincy; three brothers, corrections for

New York City and former ommissioner of corrections in Massachusetts for six years; John J. of Milton and

A. Leo McGrath of Hyde

Park, and five sisters, Mrs.

Kathieen Maher of Hingham, Mrs. Ross Parker of

Quincy, Mrs. Thomas Ken nedy of Milton, Mrs. Doro thy Palmisciano of Randolph.

Mrs. Ida V. (Shattuck) Ham, 82, of 121 Windsor rd., Newton, a Waban section

Animal League To Hold School For Children

For Children

The Animal Rescue League of Boston will hold a three-week Summer school of the control of the con understanding of animal life."

Special events will include visits by police horses and dogs with their trainers, animals from the Children's Zoo, repilles from the Bostone and to Science, because and dog and to Science, because and dog and to the constraions. Youngsters may register at the Rescue League this Thursday and Friday from 10 a.m. to noon, and from 2 to 4 p.m. Miss Harriet Flanery of the league's education department will be school director.

Shriners Gather In Chicago

CHICAGO — Thousar of fun-loving Shriners begarriving here Saturday in the State Convention of the 14th convention of the 14th convention of the 14th convention of the 14th convention of the Mystic Shri The week-long event be marked by two fiye-horades, colorful page-and and the traditional Shri trademark — the red f parades, colorful pageantry and the traditional Shring trademark — the red fea. Marching in the parade with the Shriners will be their usual assortment of animals — horses, dogs, camels — Billed as sortment of animals — horses, dogs, camels — Billed as the largest convention in the Shriner Section in the Shriner is expected to bring guests to practically every hotel in Chicago and in many suburbs. The animals will be housed in stables at Hawthorne race tracks. Cicero. Shrine officials had estimated 125,000 Shriners and their families, including 769 elected delegates, would attend. Friday it was learned that al least 25 percent of Shriners' hotel reservations had been canceled, reportedly for fear of racial violence and the transit strike. A total of 50,000 reservations had been received.

Mrs. Souvaine

Of Reading, 76;

Rites Private

the war Dr. Clark, Oudley White, Boston ourgeon and physician READING—Services will be private for journalist Mrs. Mabel Hill Souvaine, 76, of 25 Scotland rds, who died Friday in Emerson Hos-Concord, after lengthy illness.

Born in Elizabeth, N.J., as chief of surgery at Mrs. Souvaine for many. Hospital in 1960 and pnored by the Massa-s' Medical Society in years served on the editorial board of Woman's Day magazine and was its editor-ina 50-year member. chief in 1943-57. Clark was a member American College of erved his internship

ton Lying-In Hospital

Massachusetts Gener-

pital, and was in the l Corps in Europe World War I.

ner President Eisen-

and a team of doctemmed an epidemic

ce. For his services.

s decorated by the f Greece.

rence Church.

years.

Laurendeau died Frirening at his home, 6 and rd., following an of several months.

was born in Boston's

Park and resided here

Laurendeau was a er of the St. Florence

Name Society, Wake-

council of Knights of

bus, Bay State Insur-

Assn., Insurance Li-and Conference Club

ston, and the Royal s of Royal Globe, a composed of veteran ideau of Somerville; a

Mrs. Harold Adams of

ree, and four brothers, nd of Arlington, John ford, Alfred of North outh, and George Lau-u of Lexington.

ffairs here.

ns, American Medical she was educated at Columbia and Temple universities and before her association with Woman's Day, was a partner and vice president of the Hill-Winsten Adver-Laurendeau tising agency. s Tuesday Mrs. Souvaine's late husband, Henry, was producer of the Metropolitan Opera in Vakefield . 1954 and was also affiliated KEFIELD — A solemn with the Ziegfield Follies. m Mass for Joseph E. Mrs. Souvaine moved to deau, 60, state agent Royal Globe Insur-Reading from New York Companies, will be luesday at 10 a.m. in City four years ago, and was active as a free lance writer until her death. She leaves her son, Henry B. of Reading, and three grandchildren.

Charlestown Couple's Rites

Set Monday Funeral services will be held Monday for Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McLaugh,in of Charlestown, who died within 24 hours of each other.

Mr. McLaughlin, 64, of 9
Short st., suffered a fatal heart attack enroute to Masad also been active in sachusetts General Hospital. His wife, the former Beatrice T. Miskell, 68, died Fri-Laurendeau leaves his day, also on the way to the Eileen (McDonough); hospital. ughters, Linda A. and M., at home; a son, e F., also at home; his , Mrs. Annie (Pitts) The McLaughlins, both born in Ireland, leave four sons, John of Melrose, Francis of Everett, Bernard of Charlestown, and Anthony of Melrose. A solemn requiem Mass will be offered at 9 a.m. Monday in St. Francis de

Sales Church. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery,

Medford.

war and he went into business as a partner in Photo Hawaii. He later became sole owner. Interviewed three years ago about his role in selecting the Mt. Suribachi photograph, Mr. Befeler ative in the hypo. I selected the thing and we sent it immediately by radio from

But Rosenthal, now a photographer for the San Francisco Chronicle, gave Mr.

Befeler much more credit:

"The censor had to pass the picture and Murray had to decide that it was good enough to be scheduled via radiophoto, or it would have been passed over and been nothing but a piece of film."

Mr. Befeler leaves his wife, Mary, and a son, Michael.

*****

Capt Morris

Glenbrook, Ct.

she moved to New Ipswich. She leaves two nephews, Richard C. of Wellesley Hills, and Donald P. Gibbs of Newport, R.I., and a niece, Priscilla Cox of Evanston, minimized his own role: "Three of us saw the neg-

Jet Hits Homes; Pilot Killed

seven years ago,

WITELL

late and

Lardn

Tuesd

An

To

Ser

Associated Press

DALLAS - A jet fighter piloted by a Navy Reservist crashed shortly after takeoff Saturday, killing the flier and smashing into two residences and a garage. The residents of the homes were away.

Gretter, 31, of Grand Prairie. He was employed by Ling-Temco-Vought. Both homes and the detached garage caught fire. The homes were severely damaged and the garage with a car inside was destroyed. Officials at the scene warned spectators, saying the plane carried live ammunition. But no ammunition_explosions_occurred.

The pilot was Lt. Gary

Services Set Services for U. S. Army Capt. Thomas Morris, 25, formerly of Melrose, will be held Wednesday with a Solemn Requiem Mass at 10 a.m.

in St. Maurice's Church at The 1964 graduate of Boston College died June 25 in a truck accident in Vietnam. In addition to B.C., he also udied at the Fletcher studied at the School of Law and Diplomacy of Tufts, and at Harvard.

Capt. Morris leaves his wife, the former Janice Bradford of Melrose; daughter, Loren, 18 months; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Morris of Stam-

Harold Segar Rites Tuesday

ford, Ct., and a brother,

In Belmont

Services will be held Tuesday at 11 a.m. in the Short, Williamson and Dia-mond funeral home, Belmont, for Harold V. Segar, 46. a master electrician with the Belmont town electric department. New Zealand born Mr. Segar died unexpectedly in loucester on Friday.

Gen Ramcke, A Top Hitler

Commander KAPPELN, Germany - Gen Bernhard Ramcke, commander of German parachute troops during World War II, died here Thursday, a spokesman announced Saturday. He was 79.

Gen Ramcke was one of Adolf Hitler's most decorated officers. He was taken prisoner by U.S. troops after the battle of Brest on Sept. 20, 1944. A French court charged him with war crimes and sentenced him to five years in prison in 1951 but he was released shortly afterward because of failing health.

Mrs. Wm. Stellberger Quincy Mass Monday

QUINCY - Services for Mrs. Ruth (McGrath) Stellberger of 11 Robertson ter., West Quincy, who died Friday, will be held Monday at 9 a.m. with a solemn requiem

Mass in St. Mary's Church,

West Quincy. Mrs. Stellberger leaves her husband, William; two

Fo ·Th Leagu threefor ch um o Arlin begin leagu

fourth

Dr.

Buzz" be or noon 8 to The "Brot nette of m Amer tion Foun

cation show  $\mathbf{Dr}$ schoo youn enjoy crease unde life."

Spe visits dogs mals Zoo, ton N care a onstr You at th Thur 10 a.ı

to 4 ery o depar direc'

Sh Ga

In

CH

arriv

of fu the !

Anci

Noble

Th

parac and trade

be m