OBITUARIES

Robt. Boles, Marshfield Business, Civic Leader

MASHFIELD - Robert J. Boles, Sr., 54, of Marshfield, business and civic leader, died unexpectedly of heart failure at 4 p.m. Monday, March 16, at St. Luke's Hospital in Eau Claire.

He was born in Beverly, Mass., on Nov. 20, 1927, to the late Robert J. Boles, Sr., and Mildred M. Boles. He married Joanne M. Oakes on July 23, 1955, in Marshfield, and they had three children: Robert J. Jr., John C., and Amy L. Boles. He is survived by his wife, Joanne; two sons; and a daughter.

Mr. Boles was a member of the Marshfield Chamber of Commerce and the Elks Lodge. He was also a volunteer at St. Luke's Hospital and was a member of the Marshfield Kiwanis Club.

Kosygin Meets
With UN Envoy

To Middle East

MOSCOW - In Moscow, the United Nations Security Council met on Wednesday to discuss the situation in the Middle East. The meeting was chaired by UN Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim.

Waldheim called for an immediate ceasefire and withdrawal of all troops from the area. He also appealed to the leaders of all parties to the conflict to engage in direct negotiations to reach a peaceful solution.

Southern Baptist
Hails 'Open Door'

Religious leaders of the Southern Baptist Convention, which is headquartered in Louisville, Ky., have praised the decision of the United Nations to open a new office in Jerusalem.

The decision was made by the UN General Assembly on Thursday, and it will allow the Southern Baptist Convention to have a permanent presence in the Holy Land. The move is seen as a step towards improving relations between the United States and Israel.

Bicyclists to Tour
Hanscom Field

A group of bicyclists will be riding through the Hanscom Field on Sunday, June 28, as part of a charity tour. The tour is being organized by the American League of Bicyclists and is expected to draw cyclists from all over the country.

The tour will start at 8 a.m. in the center of the Hanscom Field, and it will continue through the day until sunset. Participants will be encouraged to donate money to a local charity of their choice.

Denture-Sore Gums?

For many people, denture soreness can be a common problem. It can be caused by a variety of factors, such as poor fit, inflammation, or irritation. There are several steps you can take to alleviate the discomfort:

1. Readjust Your Dentures: If your dentures are not fitting properly or have become damaged, they may need to be repaired or replaced.
2. Soak Your Dentures: Soaking your dentures in water or a special cleaning solution can help to keep them clean and prevent irritation.
3. Use Oral Irrigation: A saltwater rinse can help to soothe the gums and reduce inflammation.
4. Apply a Cooling Patch: A cooling patch can help to reduce swelling and pain.
5. Avoid Alcohol: Alcohol can increase the risk of gum irritation, so it is best to avoid consuming it.
6. Consult a Dentist: If the discomfort persists, it is important to see a dentist for an evaluation.
Clara Dowman

Had Lived in Sharon

Chicago, Ill. — Mrs. Clara Dowman, formerly of Sharon, Mass., and St. Petersburg, Fla., died today after a lengthy illness in a nursing home here.

Mrs. Dowman was born in Providence, R.I.

The widow of William R. Dowman, she leaves a son, William R., of Walham, an artist in the art production department of the Boston Globe; two daughters, Mrs. Barbara Smith of Northbrook, Ill., and Mrs. Marjorie Lawton of Westford, Mass., and 10 grandchildren.

Winning contract

By HOWARD SCHENK and RICHARD L. FREY

Problem

North-South vulnerable, West opens three spaces. North holds: S—A 5, H—A 10, D—K Q J 2, C—A 6 6 5. What should be bid?

Solution

When one defender has preempted, the chances are both defensive hands will contain tricks for declarer, not just the hand of the preempter. On this deal South did not quite foresee all the dangers.

Army 1st Lt Michael P. Vaughn of 164 Grant Av., Medford, was killed June 24 in Vietnam, his mother, Mrs. Mary Vaughn, was notified Thursday.

Lt Vaughn, 24, died when the military aircraft in which he was a passenger crashed.

Lt Vaughn was a graduate of Boston College, class of 1965, and received a master's degree in Education from Boston College in 1966.

Before entering the service in May, 1967, he taught at Jamaica Plain High School and at Abraham Lincoln High School in Boston.

Lt Vaughn graduated from St. Thomas Aquinas High School, Jamaica Plain, where he played varsity and intramural basketball.

He was a member of the R.O.T.C. at Boston College.

Lt Vaughn also leaves his wife, Virginia M. (Glavin) Vaughn, and two brothers, Paul F. of Milton and James P. Vaughn of Jamaica Plain.

Southern Baptist Hails ‘Open Door’

Religious News Service

DALLAS—Dr. W. A. Criswell, new president of the Southern Baptist Convention, declared that his Dallas congregation, largest in the denomination, is “now and forever a Philadelphia church of the open door.”

Dr. Criswell said that “anybody can come ... and God bless him as he comes” in his first sermon here after election to the Convention presidency.

Dr. Criswell called upon his 15,000-member congregation to extend the open-door policy. This policy was established at the 1863 convention of the Southern Baptist Convention in Philadelphia.