The Institute for Advanced Jesuit Studies will offer three online courses for 2019–20. To reserve your spot in these three-credit courses and to learn more contact iajs@bc.edu. Financial assistance is available.

FALL 2019

Social Justice in Jesuit Contexts
Prof. Cristiano Casalini

Discover the changing role of social justice throughout the history of the Society of Jesus, learn how the Jesuits understood their role to promote liberation from oppression, and discuss how the Jesuits have sought to fulfill “the service of faith and the promotion of justice.”

SPRING 2020

Jesuit Pedagogy
Prof. Cristiano Casalini

Examine the tension between uniformity and adaptability that has led to the unprecedented success of Jesuit education and interpret the development of Jesuit educational endeavors by focusing on both the permanent and changing traits of this distinctive pedagogy.

Spiritual Exercises:
Contents, Context, and Practice
Fr. Casey Beaumier, S.J.

Explore the dynamic of the Spiritual Exercises – the pathway to God that Ignatius Loyola authored, the fruit of his religious conversion – and seek to answer the question: How might greater knowledge of the Spiritual Exercises assist both in the formation of souls and a greater sense of mission for the building of God’s kingdom?

www.bc.edu/iajs