Toleration and Freedom:

The American Experience in Context

Focal Conference of the IPR 2010/2011 Lecture Series, "Toleration and Freedom in a Global Age"

A BILL for establishing RELIGIOUS FREEDOM printed for the consideration of the PEOPLE. ELL aware that the opinions and belief of men depend not on their own will, but follow involunrily the evidence proposed to their minds, that Almighty God hath created the mind free, a manifested his Supreme will that free it shall remain, by making it altogether insufercial is a manifested his Supreme will that free it shall remain, by making it altogether insufercial is a manifested his Supreme will that free it shall remain, by making it altogether insufercial is a manifested his Supreme will that free it shall remain, by making it altogether insufercial is a manifested his Supreme will that free it shall remain. reftraint: That all attempts to influence it by temporal punishments or burthens, or by civil in pacitations, tend only to beget habits of hypocrify and meanness, and are a departure from the plan of the lauthor of our religion, who being Lord both of body and mind. author of our religion, who being Lord both of body and mind, yet choic not to propagate it by coercion either, as was in his Almighty power to do, but to extend it by its influence on reafon alone: That the important of legislators and solven well as a realistical color than the design of legislators and relative well as a realistical color than the color of the col prefumption of legiflators and rulers, civil as well as eccletiaftical, who, being themselves but fallible and fpired men, have affamed dominion over the faith of others, fetting up their own opinions and modes of a ing, as the only true and infallible, and as fuch, endeavouring to impose them on others, hath established and fully religious over the control of the world. maintained false religious over the greatest part of the world, and through all time: That to compel to firefills contributions of money for the manufacture of column which he distributions of money for the manufacture of columns which he distributions of money for the manufacture of columns which he distributions of money for the manufacture of columns which he distributions of money for the manufacture of columns which he distributions of money for the money for the money of the money of the columns which he distributions of money for the money of the money of the money of the columns which he distributions of money of the money of the money of the money of the columns which he distributions of money of the columns which he distributions of the money of the mo to furnish contributions of money for the propagation of opinions which he difficience and abhors, is find mical: That even the forcing him to fupport this or that teacher of his own religious perfual. Friday, March 25, 2011, 9:30 a.m.-6 p.m.

Boston University Photonics Center, Colloquium Room
8 Saint Mary's Street, Ninth Floor

has a natural right: That it tends also to carrup the principles of that

ABDULLAHI AHMED AN-NA'IM Emory University School of Law

NOAH FELDMAN Harvard Law School DAVID HALL Harvard Divinity School

DAVID HOLLINGER University of California, Berkeley, Department of History

BENJAMIN KAPLAN University College London, Department of History

ERIK OWENS Boston College, Boisi Center

STUART SCHWARTZ Yale University, Department of History

JAY WEXLER Boston University School of Law

the Boston University Humanities Foundation and the Boisi Center for at Boston College.

Sponsored in part by funding from

For a complete schedule and more information, visit www.bu.edu/ipr.

All events are free and open to the public.

Boston University

Institute for Philosophy & Religion 745 Commonwealth Avenue, Room 523 Boston, MA 02215

BOSTON UNIVERSITY

617-353-3067