

Distinguished Lecture Series in Middle Eastern Studies at Boston College sponsored by the Islamic Civilization & Societies
Program and by the Center for Human Rights & International Justice and Boisi Center for Religion & American Public Life

Prof. Abdullahi A. An-Na'im

Islam, Shria, and Democratic Transformation in the Arab World

Wednesday, February 15, 2012

4:45 to 6:30 PM in Devlin Hall 008

Abdullahi A. An-Na'im is Charles Howard Candler Professor of Law at Emory University in Atlanta, where he has taught since 1995. He holds an LLB (Honours) University of Khartoum, Sudan (1970) and PhD in Law, University of Edinburgh, Scotland (1976) and an Honorary Doctorate from the Universite catholique de Louvain (2009). He served as Executive Director of Human Rights Watch/Africa 1993-95. Prof. An-Na'im is the author of Islam and the Secular State: Negotiating the Future of Shari'a (2008); African Constitutionalism and the Role of Islam (2006); and Toward an Islamic Reformation: Civil Liberties, Human Rights and International Law (1990).

For more information contact the Islamic Civilization and Societies Program at <baileyk@bc.edu> or call 617/552-4170