Safety, Equity & Community Model
Creating a Better Workplace for LGBTQ+ Employees

The following model outlines four essential pillars through which employers can provide safety, equity, and community for LGBTQ+ employees. Initiatives will range from the more local, organization-based efforts to those that have a more broad, societal impact. This framework takes into account the crucial role of LGBTQ+ advocacy and education groups and the benefits of a synergistic relationship between these groups and employers.

LGBTQ+ Advocacy and Educational Organizations
Community partners are not only subject-matter experts on topics of relevance to the LGBTQ+ communities, but also an important source of community for LGBTQ+ individuals - something that may not be wholly possible for them to find at work.

- Out and Equal Educational programs and resources for employers. Hosts annual Workplace Summit conference.
- Pride in Our Workplace Resources for employers, as well as networking and community building for LGBTQ+ professionals.
- Human Rights Campaign Known for their annual Corporate Equality Index and advocacy work. Offers a variety of guides and resources.
- Family Equality Community and support for LGBTQ+ families, particularly related to family building. Offers a variety of virtual events.
- UCLA Williams Institute Research on LGBTQ+ issues and public policy advocacy.
- GLAAD Media monitoring organization that offers a variety of guidelines and resources.
- PFLAG Advocacy, support, and educational resources. Hundreds of chapters nationwide.
- Gender Spectrum Counseling and educational services, supporting families of LGBTQ+ children. Hosts online support groups.
- The Trevor Project Suicide prevention and support for LGBTQ+ youth.