

*You're invited to a lunch and discussion as a part of the orientation for our upcoming program, Joined-up and Crosscutting Thinking in Policy Development.

Tuesday, August 6, 2013
Stormont Assembly Buildings
Long Gallery
1:00 PM – 2:30 PM

In addition to the new participants, you will be joined by representatives from Boston College, the US Consulate in Belfast, guests of the Northern Ireland Assembly, and Irish Institute alumni from the following programs:

Informed Political Decision Making, September 2011

E-Governance, September 2012

Alternatives to Political Violence, March 2012

Political Leadership, January 2013

Women in the Workplace, April 2012

Following a networking lunch participants will be invited to discuss their experiences of the Irish Institute exchange programming and their thoughts on 'joined-up government'

Please RSVP by reply email to irishinstitute@bc.edu by Thursday July 25

Parking is available adjacent to Stormont Buildings with directions available at: <http://goo.gl/JVWNu>