

Faculty Annual Report Guide: Teaching

Contents

Teaching Overview.....	2
Teaching Section A: Course Information (Optional) .....	3
Teaching Section B: Activity Classifications (Optional) .....	4
Teaching Section C: Attachments (Optional).....	5

Teaching Overview

Term	Course	Alt Prefix 1	Alt Prefix 2	Course Title	Credit Hours	Enrollment	Actions
Fall 2017	TMPS 7093 2			Introduction to Pastoral Care&Counseling:Narrativ	3	20
Fall 2017	TMPS 7182 1			Pastoral Care in/with Communities of Faith:	3	9

The Teaching Form enables you to add description to the courses you teach. Courses are imported into the system from Student Services data, so you cannot manually add or remove courses listed. If you believe there is an error (e.g., missing courses) please email bcfarhelp@bc.edu

For each course listed, use the edit button  to add information about the course.

Teaching Section A: Course Information (Optional)

Appearance

A Course Information
Term	Course	Alt Prefix 1	Alt Prefix 2	Course Title	Credit Hours	Enrollment	Course Not Taught
Fall 2017	TMPS 7093 2			Introduction to Pastoral Care&Counseling:Narrativ	3	20	<input type="checkbox"/>

Editing

Because course information is imported for you from Student Services, no action is required on the Course Information section unless you need to mark a course not taught because it is incorrectly listed.

Teaching Section B: Activity Classifications (Optional)

Appearance

B Activity Classifications

Alt Prefix 1 ?	<input type="text"/>
Alt Prefix 2 ?	<input type="text"/>
Describe any pedagogical innovations or new teaching materials you introduced into this course. ?	This semester I introduced new interactive modules for students to complete through Canvas. Instead of ⌵
Describe how the course went. ?	The course went well. The students were engaged and thanked me after the last class for the challenging ⌵
Describe what you will change if you teach this course again. ?	If I were to teach this course again, I would switch out the following readings: ⌵
Level ?	Select ▾
New course preparation? ?	Select ▾

Editing

Optional: You may describe how the course went, any new changes to the course, and what you would change if taught the course again. You can classify the course as new (Yes/No) or identify the level of the course:

Level ?	             Select ▾  Select              Core              Graduate              Undergraduate and Graduate              Undergraduate Elective              Undergraduate Major
New course preparation? ?
Attachments

Teaching Section C: Attachments (Optional)

Appearance

Editing

Optional: You can upload file attachments or link to websites relevant to the course, such as the course syllabus, course, or peer evaluations.

When adding an attachment, you must identify the type of attachment. The default Attachment Type (i.e., File) is selected for you.

The 'Course Attachments' form shows the following fields:

- Attachment Type*: File (dropdown menu)
- Attachment*: Choose File | No file chosen (text input)
- Type*: Select (dropdown menu)
- Course: TMPS 7093 2 (text input)
- Upload:  (checkbox)
- Buttons: Upload, Cancel

If you would like to link to a website, change the Attachment Type to URL and type or paste a website link in the URL field.

The 'Course Attachments' form shows the following fields:

- Attachment Type*: URL (dropdown menu)
- URL*: http://www.interfolio.com (text input)
- Type*: Select (dropdown menu)
- Course: TMPS 7093 2 (text input)
- Upload:  (checkbox)
- Buttons: Upload, Cancel