On Sunday, October 30, 2016 at approximately 2:30 am, a female BC student returning to her off-campus residence from Mary Ann's in Cleveland Circle reported that she was followed by a white male and a black male. The student reported that while walking in the rear area of 2000 Commonwealth Avenue, the suspect introduced himself as "Jimmy," whom she described as a black male, 5 feet 8 inches to 6 feet tall with a flat-top haircut. The suspect grabbed and physically assaulted the student. The white male, whom she described as having brown hair, was not directly involved in the assault. The female student was able to break free and flee the area without further incident.

BC Police remind you to consider the following safety tips:

- Avoid walking alone at night. There is strength in numbers. Don't forget the BC Eagle Escort Service. Call us at 617-552-8888, or 617-552-4440
- Do not take shortcuts through dark and isolated areas. Keep to well-lit, commonly used areas.
- Walk purposely, know where you are going, and project a look of self-assurance.
- Make yourself aware of where you can get help should you need it.
- Report suspicious behavior and activity to authorities immediately. Call 617-552-4444 on campus or 911 off campus.
