Sponsored by the Black Faculty, Staff and Administrators Association (BFSAA).

BFSAA is a resource for persons of African descent in all levels of the Boston College community.

Specifically:
We are at the forefront of advocacy for all such persons working and matriculating at Boston College;

We recognize, accept, appreciate, and celebrate the efforts of those who contribute to the advancement of Black people at Boston College;

We provide a safe forum for dialogue and debate, to hear concerns related to persons of African descent and we act to the extent possible;

We hold the University accountable to its own stated mission regarding the matters of diversity; and,

We keep issues of diversity and equity at the forefront of policymaking at Boston College.
