BOSTON COLLEGE
Orientation 2018

Parent Program
Catch the BC Spirit
Action and Reflection

Boston College’s motto, Ever to Excel, is reflected in two distinct ways. First, we are a community of learners—faculty and students who not only assimilate learning from the past but also seek to push the boundaries of the presently known. We seek to do the things that schools traditionally do, but in unique and exceptional ways. Second, we do this in the context of an overarching philosophical and theological framework called the Ignatian vision. We are people using our gifts in the service of others, and applying our knowledge and our commonly held values to the problems and contexts we confront daily. In order to be effective, this requires a continual dialectic between action and reflection, which the founder of the Jesuits, Ignatius of Loyola, required of his companions. In a real sense, we are contemplatives in action.
Dear Parents/Guardians,

It gives us great joy to welcome your child to Orientation as they begin their four years with us at Boston College.

During Orientation students will be advised on course selection and register for their first college classes, learn about co-curricular opportunities, and begin to get to know their new classmates. The program is designed to introduce first year students to life at BC and help them acclimate to the freedoms and responsibilities that come with being a college student.

We also want to offer a very special welcome to you, the ones whose care and love have prepared your child to begin their college experience here on the Heights. This year’s incoming students are undoubtedly an accomplished group that enjoyed great success in high school both inside and outside of the classroom; but we also know your student’s achievement in high school was due in no small part to the support of teachers, coaches, mentors, and, most importantly, you.

While Orientation is primarily for incoming, first-year students, we also understand that they are not the only ones in transition right now. When a child heads off to college it often impacts the whole family. For that reason we have also designed a comprehensive parent program that complements the student orientation by sharing with you the academic landscape of the university, providing you with insights into the student experience at BC, and offering practical information to answer all of your questions.

At Boston College we are all involved in the great enterprise of educating young men and women for the 21st century who will be caring, loving, responsible, just, and faith-filled leaders. Our mission as a Jesuit Catholic University is to be an inclusive community which seeks God in all things. We are grateful that your son or daughter has chosen to attend Boston College and are excited to welcome them to our University community.

Sincerely,

Michael Sacco, Ed.D.

Boston College Fight Song

For Boston

For Boston, for Boston,
We sing our proud refrain!

For Boston, for Boston,
’Tis Wisdom’s earthly fane.
For here all are one and their hearts are true,
And the towers on the Heights
Reach to Heav’n’s own blue.

For Boston, for Boston,
Till the echoes ring again!
