How Stories Can Help Caregivers Communicate with and Care for Loved Ones with Dementia

An estimated that 14% of Massachusetts residents over the age of 65 are living with some type of dementia. Supporting these loved ones can be overwhelming for caregivers.

Kelly McCarthy, author of The Brass Ring Memoirs, will explain how encouraging stories using practical methodologies can help caregivers reach for their goals in Alzheimer's and dementia care. Real life examples make Kelly's advice accessible and actionable.

Kelly McCarthy has 20 years of senior health care experience. Her 8 hour Dementia Professional educational program is a nationally recognized by the National Institute for Dementia Education.
