June 8, 2017, 7:15 PM

Boston Common

The Healthy You Program and Campus Recreation are sponsoring the J.P. Morgan Corporate Challenge Boston College Team participation in this annual event. The $50 registration fee for each team participant will be funded by The Healthy You Program.

This team is open to applicants on a first come/first served basis by submitting this form ASAP as space is limited! The first 50 people who sign up will be sent the link to “Join the Challenge” when it becomes available during the week of March 21st. It is important that if you complete the application for The Challenge that you participate in the June 8th event.

Please note: when you submit this application you will receive the official race entry link the week of March 21st. You are not guaranteed a spot on the BC Team until you complete the online race entry form. The race usually sells out quickly so please register as soon as you receive the JPMorgan Corporate Challenge registration link!

STEP 1: Apply to the BC Team by submitting this APPLICATION.

STEP 2: Look for the email from Healthy You to receive the link to register with date and time registration opens – this is very important because this event sells out quickly!

Click here for more information about this event.