Boston College Presents: Eldercare Support

Meet the Experts—“Senior Care 102”

For those of us supporting elder love ones, caregiving isn’t a “job” – it’s a journey, with no predictable ending.

The journey can be made smoother by assembling a “care team” of professionals to help with advance planning. The right traveling companions also can help you navigate crises that crop up as loved ones age.

Hear respected local resources offer medical, legal and financial viewpoints on who should be on your professional “care team.” They’ll share best practices for how to collaborate for greatest positive impact.

PLUS take home a tip sheet with 5 key pieces of advice from each professional. Moderated by aging experts from HouseWorks home care.
