

BOSTON COLLEGE OUTDOOR CODE OF CONDUCT

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF RISK

I, the undersigned, release, hold harmless and agree to indemnify Trustees of Boston College and each of their respective members, partners, officers, directors, faculty, staff, representatives, affiliates, employees and agents, as applicable, from and against any present or future claim, loss or liability for injury to person or property which I may suffer, or for which I may be liable to any other person, related to their participation in the program (including period in transit to or from the participant's destination), resulting from any cause, including but not limited to ordinary or gross negligence.

CONDUCT

At all times, participants in Boston College Outdoor Adventure programs should act in a manner appropriate for the activity or expedition. If at any time, a participant, in the judgment of an Outdoor Adventures Supervisor, goes beyond what is appropriate, the participant will be removed from the outing in progress, and will need to seek a Supervisors permission to participate in future outings. Expulsion will be issued for actions such as, but not limited to, the following:

1. Damaging, or in any way abusing Boston College property, fields, gyms, rink, equipment, etc.
2. Consumption/possession of alcoholic beverages, cigarette smoking, or use of any illegal substances
3. Verbal or physical abuse toward any person whether they be a(n) instructor, guide , student-athlete, coach, administrator, etc. (i.e. swearing, pushing, taunting, jeering, etc.)
4. Sexual harassment- Discriminatory harassment may occur in numerous forms, many of which are also violations of federal and state laws. Direct harassment is person to person; indirect harassment is the creation of a hostile environment. See student hand book.
5. Dangerous use of equipment (i.e. intentionally throwing gear, free climbing, paddling without PFD etc.)

The supervisor of Outdoor Adventures reserves the right to suspend individuals or teams from further participation for severe violations of any of the infractions listed above and if unsportsmanlike conduct is excessive or interferes with the enjoyment of other participants.

INDIVIDUAL PENALTIES

Any individual ejected from an outing may be suspended from future outings. That individual must meet with the Supervisor of Outdoor Adventures before being reinstated. Any further disciplinary problems may result in indefinite suspension from all Outdoor Adventures.

ELIGIBILITY

*Any undergraduate student, graduate student, employee of Boston College, or anyone with a valid BC Eagle ID is eligible for participation in any activity.
(students will receive first priority over staff)*

This certifies that I understand the foregoing Intramural Risk, Conduct and Eligibility Standards and their implications. If there is any discrepancy, I will assume full responsibility. Failure to comply with these standards or any Intramural rules will result in penalties and/or the actions that are fully outlined. I also am aware that I might be photographed during the course of play, and I give my consent to the Flynn Recreation Complex to use my image for marketing purposes.

I am over 18 years of age and have read and understand everything written above and I voluntarily accept its terms.
