About Summer Housing and the Office of Residential Life at Boston College

Summer Housing & Operations in the Office of Residential Life at Boston College provides housing accommodations for ~12,000 guests staying within our residence halls throughout the months of May-August. Guests include camps, conferences, internship housing, and student housing. We hire ~125 student employees to assist with the efficiency of day-to-day operations through customer service, room preparation, facilities preparation, room bookings, check-in/out, room access, and finances. By collaborating with Facilities, Trades staff, and Event Management, we are able to provide a welcoming and caring experience for those visiting campus.

The Office of Residential Life seeks to create safe, inclusive, and well-maintained living communities. We engage our community members in opportunities to develop spiritually, socially, and academically in the Jesuit, Catholic tradition of the University. We strive to do this through our values of community, inclusivity, learning, faith & spirituality and care.
