THE JESUIT COMMUNITY AT BOSTON COLLEGE

With nearly 110 members, the Jesuit Community at Boston College is one of the larger communities in the Society of Jesus. Forty-five Jesuits work full-time at Boston College, thirty on different faculties and fifteen in administrative positions. Eleven members of the community, though nominally retired, continue to teach and work in administrative posts on a part-time basis. A number of Jesuits in the community also offer Ignatian retreats and spiritual direction to faculty, staff, and students. Also part of the community are some 21 Jesuits from 16 different countries who are studying for graduate degrees at the University and several visiting scholars from other institutions. The main community residence is St. Mary's Hall, but there are also four smaller communities around the perimeter of the campus. Six Jesuits live in the residence halls. The Jesuits who staff St. Ignatius Parish are also a part of the Boston College Jesuit Community. For further details, including a list of courses taught by Jesuits at Boston College, see the Jesuit Community Web page at <http://fmwww.bc.edu/SJ>
